

PostPride

Australia Post is committed to a diverse and inclusive workplace that reflects our customers and communities. PostPride is the employee network for LGBTQIA+ people, allies and team members of any sexual orientation, gender identity or intersex status are welcome. Our mission is to be a visible support network that inspires and drives positive social change for our LGBTQIA+ team members, customers, and communities

To join please follow us at PostPride on Viva Engage

Rainbow Peer Support Group

The Australia Post Rainbow Peer Support Group is a listen and referral service made up of a group of LGBTQIA+ team members and allies from across the organisation working together to help any team members seeking confidential support for LGBTQIA+ matters. This support network group provides a safe, approachable outlet for team members that identify as LGBTQIA+ or those who are simply unsure. You can email or call any member directly.

ourpost.com.au/lgbti

