AUSTRALIA POST ENTERPRISE AGREEMENT 2024

Postal services

DEPUTY PRESIDENT ROBERTS

SYDNEY, 11 OCTOBER 2024

Application for approval of the Australia Post Enterprise Agreement 2024

[1] An application has been made for the approval of an enterprise agreement known as the Australia Post Enterprise Agreement 2024 (Agreement). The application was made pursuant to s.185 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (Act). It has been made by Australian Postal Corporation t/a Australia Post (Applicant). The Agreement is a single enterprise agreement.

[2] The Agreement does not provide for a delegates' rights clause as required by s.205A(1) of the Act. In accordance with s.201(1A), I note that clause 10A, Workplace delegates' rights, in the Australia Post Enterprise Award 2015 is to be taken to be a term of the Agreement.

[3] I also note that Clause 2.3.1 of the Agreement addresses any concerns in relation to potential inconsistencies between the terms of the Agreement, including in relation to clauses 20.5, 20.6 and 21, and National Employment Standards (NES).

[4] The rates of pay and allowances payable under the Agreement are not set out in the Agreement itself but are contained in the Australia Post Human Resources Manual Rates of Pay Booklet September 2024 – September 2026 (Booklet). A copy of the Booklet was provided to the Commission. Without the details in the Booklet, it would not have been possible for the Commission to undertake the better off overall test as required by ss.186(2)(d) and 193. The rates and allowances in the Booklet are expressly incorporated into the Agreement by virtue of clause 39.3.3 and therefore form part of the Agreement. In those circumstances, I advised the parties that my preliminary view was that the Booklet, as well as the Agreement, should be published with any approval decision. I invited submissions about that proposed course.

[5] The Applicant's primary position was that the Booklet should not be published although the Applicant ultimately also advised that publication was not objected to if their submissions on the point were not accepted.

[6] The Applicant referred to the competitive nature of the industry and to various competitors with agreements that did not expressly publish the rates of pay provided for in their agreements. The Applicant argued that the present situation was distinguishable from the circumstances in both *AWU v Oji Foodservice Packaging Solutions Pty Ltd*¹ (Oji) and *Application by VIP Plastic Packaging Pty Ltd*² because this was not a case involving the redaction of wage rates from an agreement or the non-inclusion/non-incorporation of those rates, but rather a question about the publication of rates that are expressly incorporated. I accept that to be the case. I also accept that the Booklet is readily accessible to employees of the Applicant, both new and existing, and their respective unions.

[7] Section 601(4) of the Act provides as follows:

(4) The FWC must publish the following, on its website or by any other means that the FWC considers appropriate:

- (a) a decision that is required to be in writing and any written reasons that the FWC gives in relation to such a decision;*
- (b) an enterprise agreement that has been approved by the FWC under Part 2-4.*

The FWC must do so as soon as practicable after making the decision or approving the agreement.

[8] In Oji the Full Bench observed that s.601(4)(b) was directed at the enterprise agreement ‘as made’ and noted that the agreement is made when it is approved by a vote of employees.³ The Bench went on to point out that if the agreement as made does not include the details of signatories, the Commission was not compelled by s.601(4)(b) to publish those details although it may choose to do so.⁴

[9] The employees were provided with access to the Booklet, amongst other things, before the start of the voting on the proposed agreement as required by paragraphs 4 and 5 of the Fair Work (Statement of Principles on Genuine Agreement) Instrument 2023 (Statement of Principles). The agreement that was made when it was approved by the vote of employees expressly included the rates and allowances in the Booklet even though those rates were not set out, in terms, in the agreement itself. In substance if not in form, the contents of the Booklet formed part of the Agreement as made. Even if I were not required by s.601(4)(b) to publish the Booklet I think it is appropriate to do so having regard to the centrality of wages and allowances to the agreement that has been struck and their ‘obvious importance’ to employees⁵. I also consider that publication is consistent with the statutory direction in s.577(1)(c) that the Commission perform its functions and exercise its powers in a manner that is open and transparent. I therefore propose to publish the Booklet with this decision.

[10] The Applicant has provided written undertakings (Annexure A). In accordance with s.190(4) of the Act the views of the bargaining representatives for the agreement were sought in relation to the undertakings. I am satisfied that the undertakings will not cause financial detriment to any employee covered by the Agreement and that the undertakings will not result in substantial changes to the Agreement.

³ At [65] and [66].

⁴ At [68].

⁵ See VIP Plastic op cit, quoting Oji, at [11].

[11] Subject to the undertakings referred to above, I am satisfied that each requirement of ss186, 187 and 188 as is relevant to this application for approval has been met. The undertakings are taken to be a term of the Agreement.

[12] The Community and Public Sector Union - PSU Group, (CPSU), Communications, Electrical, Electronic, Energy, Information, Postal, Plumbing and Allied Services Union of Australia - Communications Division (CEPU), Communications, Electrical, Electronic, Energy, Information, Postal, Plumbing and Allied Services Union of Australia – Tasmania Branch (CEPU - TAS), Transport Workers' Union of Australia (TWU) and the Australian Municipal, Administrative, Clerical and Services Union – Victorian Private Sector Branch (ASU), each lodged a Form F18 statutory declaration giving notice under s.183 of the Act that it wants the Agreement to cover it. In accordance with s.201(2) of the Act, I note the Agreement covers the CPSU, CEPU, CEPU – TAS, TWU and ASU.

[13] The Agreement is approved and will operate in accordance with s.54 of the Act. The nominal expiry date of the Agreement is 9 October 2027.

[9] An application has also been made by the Applicant to vary the terms of the Agreement under s.218A of the Act to correct an obvious error, defect or irregularity in the Agreement. The application seeks to remove the reference to 'the previous twelve months' in clause 15.6.1(b) of the Agreement and replace it with a reference to 'the previous six months.'

[10] The Applicant outlined the history of the negotiations for the provisions now appearing in clause 15.6.1(b). This included an account of the origin of the provision in question (which would require the Applicant to consider the hours worked by part-time employees over the previous six months, rather than the previous 12 months as is the case under the Australia Post Enterprise Agreement 2021, in any review of the hours of engagement of part-time employees) - as a claim from the CEPU. The Applicant advised that the claim had been accepted by the Applicant during negotiations on 2 July 2024 and formally accepted by correspondence on 5 July 2024.

[11] The Applicant also submitted that following agreement between the parties on that term, the agreed term was, amongst other terms, publicised to employees during the course of negotiations as being an agreed item. Ultimately, the explanatory materials provided by the Applicant to the employees to describe the differences between the Agreement and the 2021 Agreement to satisfy the requirements of ss180(5) and 188 of the Act and paragraph 8 of the Statement of Principles, also included a reference to the agreed change which specified that the review was to consider hours worked over 'the previous six months.' The Applicant submitted that it was only shortly after the Agreement had been voted on by employees it was discovered that the document contained the incorrect reference to 'the previous twelve months.'

[12] The union bargaining representatives either consented to the application for variation, or did not oppose the application. Having regard to the uncontested account of events by the Applicant I am satisfied that the Agreement contains an obvious error within the meaning of s.218A and that I should exercise my discretion in favour of varying the Agreement to correct that error. As a consequence, clause 15.6.1(b) of the Agreement shall provide as follows:

'(b) factors to be considered in the review process shall be the hours of duty worked over the previous six months (or since the employee started in the position, whichever is the lesser period) and known business/operational changes in the next six months;'

[13] The Applicant submitted that the proposed variation should take effect from the date when the Agreement commences operation under the Act. I agree that the variation should operate from that date. In accordance with s.218A(3) the variation will operate on and from 18 October 2024. An order giving effect to this decision will be published separately.

- 1.1 This Agreement will be known as the Australia Post Enterprise Agreement 2024 and referred to as EA2024.
- 1.2 This Agreement will operate in conjunction with determinations made from time to time under section 89 of the APC Act. For the avoidance of doubt, the determinations made under section 89 are not incorporated in this Agreement unless specifically included.
- 1.3 Where a determination is inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, the latter will prevail.

2 Application, duration and scope

2.1 Coverage of the Agreement

- 2.1.1 This Agreement is made under Part 2-4 of the FW Act and covers:
 - (a) Australia Post;
 - (b) all employees of Australia Post employed in classifications set out in Attachment A; and
 - (c) Unions as defined in clause 44.13.

2.2 Duration of the Agreement

- 2.2.1 The Agreement will come into effect seven days after approval by the FWC.
- 2.2.2 The nominal expiry date of the Agreement will be three years from the date on which the Agreement comes into operation.

2.3 Interaction with the National Employment Standards

- 2.3.1 This Agreement will be read and interpreted in conjunction with the National Employment Standards (NES). Where there is an inconsistency between this Agreement and the NES, and the NES provides a greater benefit, the NES provision will apply to the extent of the inconsistency.

3 Work health and safety

- 3.1 The Parties are committed to achieving and maintaining healthy and safe working conditions in all Australia Post workplaces by abiding by relevant work health and safety legislation. This clause 3 is not intended to confer rights and obligations outside of the SRC Act, the WHS Act and associated legislation or processes, nor is it intended to allow right of entry to workplaces outside the FW Act.
- 3.2 This commitment also imposes an obligation on Australia Post to consult with the Union on work health and safety issues affecting their members. Consultation with the Union will take place in accordance with the requirements of the WHS Act, and procedures relating to Designated Work Groups, Health and Safety Representatives and Health and Safety Committees.

4 Anti-discrimination

- 4.1 The Parties to this Agreement intend to respect and value the diversity of the workforce by helping to prevent and eliminate discrimination on the basis of protected attributes under State and Commonwealth anti-discrimination legislation which include race, colour, sex, sexual preference, age, physical or mental disability, marital status, family responsibilities, pregnancy, religion, political opinion, national extraction or social origin.
- 4.2 Accordingly, in fulfilling their obligations under the dispute resolution clause, the Parties will make every endeavour to ensure that neither the Agreement provisions nor their operation are directly or indirectly discriminatory in their effects.
- 4.3 Nothing in this clause is to be taken to affect:
 - (a) any different treatment (or treatment having different effects) which is specifically exempted under the Commonwealth anti-discrimination legislation;

- (b) an employee, employer or registered organisation, pursuing matters of discrimination in any federal jurisdiction, including by application to the Australian Human Rights Commission; or
- (c) conduct that would be covered by the exemptions in section 351(2) of the FW Act.

5 Agreement flexibility

5.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Australia Post and an individual employee may agree to vary the application of certain terms of this Agreement to meet the genuine individual needs of Australia Post and the individual employee (Flexibility Agreement). The terms Australia Post and the individual employee may agree to vary the application of are those concerning:

- (a) arrangements for when work is performed;
- (b) overtime rates;
- (c) penalty rates;
- (d) allowances; and
- (e) leave loading.

5.2 Australia Post and the individual employee must have genuinely made the Flexibility Agreement without coercion or duress.

5.3 The Flexibility Agreement between Australia Post and the individual employee must:

- (a) be confined to a variation in the application of one or more of the terms listed in clause 5.1;
- (b) result in the employee being better off overall than the employee would have been if no individual Flexibility Agreement had been agreed to;
- (c) be about matters that would be permitted matters if the Flexibility

Agreement were an enterprise agreement; and

- (d) not include a term that would be an unlawful term if the Flexibility Agreement were an enterprise agreement.

5.4 The Flexibility Agreement between Australia Post and the individual employee must also:

- (a) be in writing, name the parties to the agreement and be signed by Australia Post and the individual employee and, if the employee is under 18 years of age, the employee's parent or guardian;
- (b) state each term of this Agreement that Australia Post and the individual employee have agreed to vary;
- (c) detail how the application of each term has been varied by agreement between Australia Post and the individual employee;
- (d) detail how the Flexibility Agreement results in the individual employee being better off overall in relation to the individual employee's terms and conditions of employment; and
- (e) state the date the agreement commences to operate.

5.5 Australia Post must give the individual employee a copy of the Flexibility Agreement within 14 days of it being agreed to and keep the agreement as a time and wages record.

5.6 Except as provided in clause 5.4(a) the Flexibility Agreement must not require the approval or consent of a person other than Australia Post and the individual employee.

5.7 The employee may be accompanied by a person of their choice, including a Union representative, in meeting and conferring with Australia Post about entering into a Flexibility Agreement.

- 5.8 If Australia Post seeks to enter into a Flexibility Agreement, it must provide a written proposal to the employee. Where the employee's understanding of written English is limited, Australia Post must take measures, including translation into an appropriate language, to ensure the employee understands the proposal.
- 5.9 A Flexibility Agreement may be terminated:
- (a) by Australia Post or the individual employee giving four weeks' notice of termination, in writing, to the other party and the agreement ceasing to operate at the end of the notice period; or
 - (b) at any time, by written agreement between Australia Post and the individual employee.
- 5.10 The right to make a Flexibility Agreement pursuant to this clause is in addition to, and is not intended to otherwise affect, any provision for an agreement between Australia Post and an individual employee contained in any other term of this Agreement.

6 Index of facilitative provisions

6.1 Agreement to Vary Operation of Provisions

- 6.1.1 This Agreement contains facilitative provisions which allow agreement to be reached between Australia Post and employees on how specific provisions are to apply at the workplace or enterprise level. The facilitative provisions are identified in clauses 6.2.1 and 6.3.1.
- 6.1.2 The specific provisions establish both the standard conditions and the framework within which agreement can be reached as to how the particular provision should be applied in practice.
- 6.1.3 Facilitative provisions are not to be used as a device to avoid obligations nor should they result in unfairness to an employee, or employees covered by this Agreement. Employees are not to be coerced to reach agreement on facilitative provisions.

- 6.1.4 Where relevant circumstances change, any party involved can review the arrangements established under these facilitative provisions, and can, subject to an appropriate period of notice, withdraw their agreement.

- 6.2.4 At the request of an employee, a Union must be given a reasonable opportunity to participate in negotiations regarding the proposed implementation of a facilitative provision for one or more of its members. Union involvement does not mean that the consent of the Union is required prior to the introduction of agreed facilitative arrangements.

6.3 Facilitation by Majority Agreement

6.3.1 The following facilitative provisions can be utilised upon agreement between Australia Post and the majority of employees in the workplace or part of it provided that the agreement complies with clauses 6.2.2, 6.2.3 and 6.2.4. 7.2.7 Priority will be given to permanent part-time employees when applying for permanent full-time vacancies in accordance with agreed guidelines.

7.3 Promotion/Temporary Performance Appeal Rights

7.3.1 Australia Post will continue for the duration of the Agreement to provide employees with appeal rights against provisional promotions and against temporary transfers exceeding 3 months.

7.4 Maximising Full-time Work

7.4.1 Australia Post and the Union commit to working together during the life of the Agreement to develop a model of work that will allow increased opportunity for a greater proportion of Australia Post employees, particularly those engaged in the Letters & Mail Network, to be engaged as full-time employees. The model will also explore opportunities to review work arrangements and increase flexibility by amalgamating functions where possible, improve productivity and create further full-time opportunities for full-time work or for additional income for our employees.

7.4.2 Australia Post and the Union commit to commencing discussions immediately to address the impact of this commitment. It is envisaged that the discussions will encompass:

7.5 Fixed Term Employees

7.5.1 An employee can only be recruited on a fixed term basis when it is likely that the employee's service will be required only for a specific period for the purposes of (and also in compliance with the FW Act):

- (a) recruitment for a specific project or task to provide special skills which are not encompassed by current operational roles;
- (b) filling temporary resource needs resulting from specific employee circumstances;
- (c) facilitating workforce adjustment/ transition strategies for implementation of change or acceptance of new business opportunities. These will be the subject of consultation in accordance with clause 31 and that consultation will include any expected need to use fixed term employees; and

- (d) other circumstances agreed between Australia Post and the relevant Union or determined by the FWC.

7.5.2 A fixed term employee will not be held against a permanent vacant position unless the reason for employing the fixed term employee against such a position meets the requirements of clause 7.5.1.

7.5.3 The period of continuous employment as a fixed term employee can be up to one year but can be extended beyond one year in particular circumstances for further periods:

- (a) all extensions are subject to approval through the relevant Business Unit or Head of Human Resources and in consultation with the Union;
- (b) extensions greater than a further one year (a period of continuous employment greater than two years) must be by agreement with the Union.

7.5.4 Extensions of fixed term employment will, in most circumstances, be limited to planning for known impacts of major change projects and employment breaks (as defined under clause 27.2(a)(v)).

7.5.5 Where the services of a fixed term employee are terminated before the expiry of the period fixed by the terms of engagement, the employee is entitled to notice in accordance with section 117(3) of the FW Act.

7.5.6 Fixed term employees who have been subject to the same selection processes that apply to permanent employees, will, subject to satisfactory service, be given priority if any permanent base level vacancies are filled by external recruitment during the fixed term period (subject to clause 7.2.7).

7.6 Casual Employees

7.6.1 A casual employee is a person employed in relieving work or work of a casual, irregular or intermittent nature or of a short-term duration and who is engaged and paid by the hour but does not include an employee who would properly be classified as permanent or fixed term.

7.6.2 Each work period for a casual is a separate and distinct period of service.

7.6.3 A casual employee may be engaged for a period up to 12 weeks. Provided that at the end of a 12-week period a casual employee may be offered permanent employment or fixed term employment. Where fixed term employment is offered it must meet the requirements of clause 7.5 of this Agreement.

7.6.4 Notwithstanding clause 7.6.3, the terms of engagement and the number of casual employees employed under the Christmas arrangements will be the subject of consultation between Australia Post and the Union. Casual employees must not be engaged before Christmas in such a manner as to pre-empt that consultation.

7.6.5 An employee will not be engaged as a casual to avoid any obligations of this Agreement.

7.6.6 Casual employees may also be entitled to convert to full-time or part-time (permanent) employment in accordance with the FW Act.

7.7 Relief Staff

7.7.1 Australia Post is committed to providing adequate relief staffing to cover business requirements in a way which:

- (a) ensures that unreasonable workload demands are not placed on other staff;
- (b) ensures that there is fair and reasonable access by staff to their leave entitlements; and
- (c) utilises, wherever practical, quality skilled relief staffing, including consideration being given to permanent relief staff where possible.

7.8 Agency Personnel

7.8.1 The Parties acknowledge that the use of agency personnel can impact on the employer-employee relationship. Accordingly:

- (a) Australia Post will ensure that the overall pay and conditions of remuneration paid to agency personnel will not be less than the overall pay and conditions of remuneration provided to comparable Australia Post employees by the Agreement and the Australia Post Enterprise Award 2015. Australia Post will ensure that agency personnel will observe the same on the job working arrangements as apply to the comparable Australia Post employees under the Agreement; and
- (b) where agency personnel are engaged they will be utilised to cover casual and fixed term needs within the same parameters as defined in clauses 7.5 and 7.6, provided that fixed term agency personnel can only be employed in non-operational roles.

7.8.2 Australia Post will provide the Union with information on how agency personnel have been used and will also consult on the operations of these arrangements. Information will be provided nationally to the Union on a quarterly basis. This clause does not require Australia Post to provide information about individual employees to the Union.

7.9 Contractors

- 7.9.1 The Parties acknowledge that the use of contractors can impact on the employer-employee relationship. Australia Post agrees that contractors will not be used as a means of pursuing a reduction in wages and conditions of Australia Post employees or altering Australia Post's commitment to providing opportunities for its employees.

15.3 Specific provisions - Technical Employees15.3.1 Non-shiftworkers

In the case of employees other than shift workers, the hours of duty, exclusive of meal breaks, will not exceed 36.75 per week made up of 7 hours 21 minutes per day Monday to Friday, within the limits of 7.00am and 6.00pm.

15.3.3 Shiftworkers

For employees whose duties do not permit the working of straight day duty as shown in clause 15.3.1, the following shift conditions will apply:

(a) Hours of Duty

The hours of duty will be an average of 36.75 per week over a cycle of shifts. A reduced number of attendances may be worked in the cycle of shifts.

(f) Night Shift

Any shift which falls wholly within the 6.00pm - 8.00am bandwidth.

15.3.4 Facilitative Arrangements

In cases where the provisions of this clause do not fully satisfy either Australia Post's operational needs or social needs of employees, the provisions of this clause may be varied by mutual agreement between Australia Post and the majority of employees affected by the change. This clause overrides the facilitative provisions at clause 15.4.

15.3.5 Meal Break

No employee will be required to work for a continuous period of more than five hours without a meal break of one hour, except where by mutual agreement between the majority of the employees at any station and Australia Post, a meal break of not less than 30 minutes is arranged. Where an employee is engaged on shift duty, the employee may be required to remain in attendance during the shift break subject to the following conditions:

- (a) where the meal break is rostered as duty, no additional payment will be made;
- (b) where the meal break is not rostered as duty, additional payment will be made at the employee's ordinary rate of pay for the meal break. Where an employee is called upon to work during the meal break, overtime rates will be paid for the whole of the meal break.

15.3.6 Unusual Conditions

Where an employee works for more than one hour during normal rostered hours in circumstances or locations where, in the opinion of the supervisor, in consultation with the local Health and Safety Representative, the work is unusually cramped, distressing or unhealthy, e.g.:

- (a) In a tunnel;
- (b) Under floors;
- (c) In lift wells;
- (d) On overhead equipment close to ceilings;
- (e) Inside and under mail processing equipment; or

Where such a reduction occurs, the normal hours of duty on other days will not be increased.

15.3.7 Overtime

Payment for overtime will be subject to the conditions prescribed in clause 16. The exception is, however, that an employee will be paid at the rate of double time for all overtime duty performed between 11.00pm on one day and 7.00am on the next day.

15.4 Hours of Duty Facilitative Provisions

15.4.1 Specific hours of duty provisions can be varied by agreement with either the majority of employees or on the basis of individual agreement in the following manner:

- (a) the ordinary hours of duty of employees shall not exceed 36.75 hours per week or an average thereof provided that the weekly hours for day workers may be averaged over a cycle of no longer than 12 months;
- (b) the ordinary hours of day workers may be between the hours of 6.30am and 6.00pm;

- (c) ordinary hours of duty shall be worked on an average of no more than 5 attendances per week over a cycle; and
- (d) ordinary hours of duty on any one day may be between six and ten hours.

15.5 Part-time Employees

15.5.1 Continuous Duty

The ordinary hours of duty of part-time employees shall be continuous on any one day. An unpaid meal break shall not be regarded as breaking continuity of duty.

15.5.2 Hours Specified

At the time of engagement, Australia Post and the part-time employee will agree in writing, on a regular pattern of work, specifying at least the hours worked each day, which days of the week the employee will work, or, where appropriate, the number of shifts in the cycle and the actual starting and finishing times each day/shift.

15.5.3 Hours Varied

Subject to clauses 15.5.4 and 15.5.5, the hours of duty of part-time employees may be varied to meet Australia Post's operating requirements, following consultation with the employee and having regard to the needs of the employee. Any variations will be recorded in writing. Family responsibilities of part-time employees are to be considered when varying hours of duty.

15.5.4 Notice

Part-time employees must be given a reasonable period of notice of a variation of hours of duty. Where a reduction in hours will occur, no part-time employee shall be given less than three months' notice of a reduction in hours unless the employee agrees to a shorter period.

15.5.5 Initiated by Employee

Where the permanent part-time employment arrangement was initiated by the employee, the hours of duty can only be varied during the period for which the arrangement was approved, with the consent of the employee.

However if the arrangement extends beyond 12 months, the hours of duty may be varied after 12 months in accordance with clause 15.5.3.

15.6 Review Process: Part-time Employees

Australia Post acknowledges that the rostered hours of part-time staff should match the underlying ordinary hours of the position, i.e., the hours worked on a regular predictable basis in a manner consistent with the relevant hours of duty provisions in this Agreement.

15.6.1 Australia Post will continue the following arrangements:

- (a) employees will have a right to seek a review of their current hours against the above principle (refer clause 15.6) including providing appropriate supporting reasons, and have the right to request Union involvement in that process;
- (b) factors to be considered in the review process shall be the hours of duty worked over the previous twelve months (or since the employee started in the position, whichever is the lesser period) and known business/operational changes in the next six months;
- (c) the review shall be documented (in accordance with the standard pro forma developed at the national level);
- (d) Australia Post's employment monitoring arrangements shall include data on the extent of additional hours being worked by part-time employees; and
- (e) employees will not be discriminated against or disadvantaged because they have sought a review of their current hours.

15.6.2 Australia Post agrees to provide relevant information and explain and support the reasons why it reached the decision that it did, at the time that the employee is informed of the decision. Where an employee disagrees with the outcome of the review the employee may elect to take the matter through the Dispute Resolution Procedure, in lieu of the Grievance Process.

15.7 Part-time Employees – Minimum Hours

15.7.1 The Parties support the principle that part-time positions should not be less than three hours per engagement. There will, however, be circumstances where the application of this principle may result in arrangements which are not practicable and/or there is no other available work. Where these circumstances arise:

- (a) in respect of new positions, Australia Post and the Union agree to consultation prior to the creation and staffing of such a position, including appropriate consideration of alternative work arrangements which would meet the minimum hours principle; and
- (b) in respect of existing individual part-time positions which do not conform with the principle, these will be reviewed when they next become vacant.

15.7.2 The Parties agree that the minimum hours principle will be applied as follows:

- (a) existing part-time arrangements will not be reduced on the basis of this clause; and
- (b) any proposals to vary the level of rostered hours of a number of part-time positions on a shift will be subject to consultation with the Union at State level and with the staff concerned.

15.8 Make Up Time

An employee may elect, with the consent of Australia Post, to work make up time under which the employee takes time off ordinary hours, and works the time taken off at a later time, during the spread of ordinary hours applicable to the employee, at ordinary rates.

15.9 Meal Break

15.9.1 An employee shall not be employed for more than 5 hours continuously without being granted a meal break of not less than 30 minutes nor more than 75 minutes, provided that:

- (a) by agreement between Australia Post and an employee or a majority of employees in the workplace concerned a longer period for the meal break may be arranged;
- (b) by agreement between Australia Post and an employee, the employee concerned may work in excess of 5 hours but not more than 6 hours without a meal break;
- (c) however, where an employee is required to work in excess of 5 hours on any day or shift, a meal break must be granted.

15.10 Tea Break

15.10.1 Australia Post commits to maintaining tea break arrangements that apply at individual workplaces in accordance with custom and practice. Australia Post, however, may vary the time at which a tea break is taken at a workplace where such a variation is operationally required. Australia Post may also vary the length of a tea break at a workplace where the length of the break at that workplace is inconsistent with tea break arrangements applicable at other workplaces within the same operational stream in Australia Post and where current arrangements are not based on operational considerations limited to that particular facility. Provided that ongoing changes to the length of tea breaks would be regarded as significant change for the purposes of clause 31 - Employee Consultation, and would involve a process to determine the view of staff.

16 Overtime

16.1 General Conditions

16.1.1 Reasonable Overtime

- (a) Subject to clause 16.1.1(b) Australia Post may require an employee to work reasonable overtime in accordance with the provisions of this clause.
- (b) Provided that this subclause does not apply to employees employed in accordance with the provision of clause 22.14 - Parental Leave – Right to Request.
- (c) An employee may refuse to work overtime in circumstances where the working of such overtime would result in the employee working hours which are unreasonable having regard to:
 - (i) any risk to employee health and safety;
 - (ii) the employee's personal circumstances including any family responsibilities;
 - (iii) the needs of the workplace or enterprise;
 - (iv) the notice (if any) given by the employer of the overtime and by the employee of his or her intention to refuse it; and
 - (v) any other relevant matter.

16.1.2 Salary

An employee's salary for the purpose of computation of overtime includes higher duties allowance and any other allowance in the nature of salary.

16.1.3 Hourly Overtime Rate

- (a) The hourly rate for overtime payment is ascertained by the following formula:

$$(A \div 313 \times 6 \div 36.75) \times P$$

Where:

- A is the annual salary; and
- P is the prescribed rate.
- (b) For the purpose of 16.1.3(a), the prescribed rates (P) for overtime duty are:
 - (i) Monday to Friday – 150% for first 3 hours and 200% thereafter;
 - (ii) on public holidays – 250%;
 - (iii) on Sundays – 200%; and
 - (iv) on Saturdays -
 - for non-shiftworkers – 150% for the first three hours and 200% thereafter; and
 - for shiftworkers – 200%.
- (c) For the purpose of this clause, a shiftworker means an employee who is rostered on:
 - (i) alternating or rotating shifts or a constant shift involving regular ordinary duty after 1.00 pm on Saturday; or
 - (ii) a shift which, but for it being worked continuously with the approval of Australia Post or to suit Australia Post's convenience, would fall within clause 16.1.3(c)(i).

16.1.4 Part-Time Employees

- (a) Part-time employees are eligible for overtime penalty rates applicable to full-time employees in the following circumstances:
 - (i) duty in excess of 7 hours 21 minutes on any one day;

(ii) where an employee is required to work on more than 5 days per week.

(b) Duty in excess of normal requirements but which does not attract a penalty under clause 16.1.4(a) will be paid at the rate applicable to ordinary duty on that day.

16.1.5 Sunday Duty – Day Off In Lieu

Where an employee, who has been required to perform in addition to the prescribed hours of duty for the week, a full day's duty on Sunday, wherever practicable, is to be granted a day off during the 6 days succeeding that Sunday and, in such cases, the payment for Sunday attendance is one day's pay instead of the Sunday overtime rate.

16.1.6 Employees Ineligible for Overtime

Employees being paid at the level of Administrative Officer 6 or Postal Manager Grade 3 are not eligible to receive overtime payments or time off in lieu.

16.2 Overtime – Time Off Instead of Payment

16.2.1 Time Off Instead of Overtime Payment

By mutual agreement between Australia Post and an individual employee, time off during ordinary working hours is allowed instead of payment for overtime under this Agreement. Such agreement is to be made in writing.

16.2.2 Amount of Time Off

- (a) Time off instead of payment for overtime is based on the number of ordinary hours equivalent to the appropriate overtime rates for the hours worked.
- (b) By mutual agreement between Australia Post and the individual employee, the employee may be paid at ordinary rates for the time worked and take time off equivalent to the rate of the residual penalty payment.

16.2.3 Timing of Time Off

- (a) Time off instead of payment for overtime is to be granted and taken as agreed between Australia Post and the employee and within agreed time frames.
- (b) Where it is not practicable for time off to be granted or taken within the agreed time frame, the employee is to be paid for the overtime worked at the prescribed rate of payment.

16.2.4 Eligibility

Time off instead of payment for overtime only applies to employees who are eligible to receive overtime payments in accordance with clause 16.1.

16.3 Minimum Overtime Payment

16.3.1 Four Hour Minimum

Subject to this clause, where an employee is required to perform overtime duty, and such duty is not continuous with ordinary duty, the minimum overtime payment payable for each separate overtime attendance is for four hours at the prescribed overtime rate. An exception to the minimum overtime payment payable applies to a part-time employee whose ordinary hours of duty for that day are less than four hours, in which case the minimum extra payment is the prescribed ordinary hours of duty for that day.

16.3.2 Meal Breaks Disregarded

For the purpose of this clause, meal breaks are disregarded.

16.3.3 Duty after Midnight

Where an overtime attendance not continuous with ordinary duty, involves duty both before and after midnight, it is regarded as one attendance for minimum payment purposes. Where a higher overtime rate applies on one of the days, the minimum payment is calculated at the higher rate.

16.3.4 Restriction

An employee, who is required to remain contactable and available to perform duty outside ordinary hours of duty and is required to actually perform such duty, is paid overtime in accordance with this clause subject to the following minimum payments:

- (a) where not recalled to the workplace, a minimum payment of one hour applies; and
- (b) where recalled to the workplace, a minimum payment of three hours applies.
- (c) Provided that where duty is performed more than once, the minimum overtime payment provisions of clauses 16.3.4(a) and 16.3.4(b) do not operate to increase an employee's overtime remuneration beyond that which would have been received had the employee remained on duty from the commencing time of duty on one attendance to the ceasing time of duty on a subsequent attendance.

16.3.5 Overtime to Restore Essential Services

- (a) An employee may be required to perform duty away from the normal workplace outside ordinary hours of duty in order to restore essential services in emergency circumstances either by using a remote computer terminal or by providing technical advice over the telephone.
- (b) Where an employee performs duty in accordance with clause 16.3.5(a), the provisions in clause 16.3.4 apply.

16.4 Rest Relief after Overtime

16.4.1 10 Hour Break

- (a) An employee, after the completion of overtime and ordinary duty on one day/shift, must be given at least 10 consecutive hours off duty, including travelling time, before resuming any duty on the next day/shift. Any absence during ordinary working time which occurs within the 10 hours will be without loss of salary.

- (b) Provided that if such an employee is required by Australia Post to resume or continue work without having had 10 consecutive hours off duty the employee is to be paid at double rates until released from duty for that period, and will then be entitled to be absent for 10 consecutive hours off duty, without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during that absence.

16.4.2 Eligibility

The rest relief after overtime provisions clause 16.4 apply only to employees who are eligible for overtime payment.

16.5 Emergency Duty

16.5.1 Eligibility

Where an employee is called on duty to meet an emergency at a time when the employee would not ordinarily have been on duty, and no notice of such call was given prior to ceasing duty, the employee shall be paid for such emergency duty at the rate of 200%.

16.5.2 Travel Time Included

The time for which payment shall be made shall include time necessarily spent in travelling to and from duty.

16.5.3 Minimum Payment

The minimum overtime payment provisions in clause 16.3 do not apply to emergency duty. The minimum payment for emergency duty shall be for 2 hours at 200%.

16.5.4 Rest Relief

16.6 Restriction Duty

16.6.1 Restriction Direction

Australia Post may direct an employee to be contactable and available to perform extra duty outside the employee's ordinary hours of duty, subject to payment under this sub-clause.

16.6.2 Eligibility for Payment

Payment will be subject to the following conditions:

- (a) except with the approval of Australia Post, employees employed in classifications of Administrative Officer Level 6 or Postal Manager Grade 3 are not eligible to receive payment;

- (b) at a rate of 10% of the employee's hourly rate of salary for each hour restricted Saturday and Sunday;
- (c) at a rate of 15% of the employee's hourly rate of salary for each hour restricted on public holidays and rostered days off;

16.6.6 Part Hour

The allowance payable under this subclause is payable for each hour or part hour during which the employee is restricted outside the employee's ordinary hours of duty.

16.6.7 No Concurrent Payment

Any part of a period of restriction for which the employee receives another payment, for example a period when overtime or excess travelling time payments are made, will not be included in the period of restriction for calculating payments under clause 16.6.3.

16.6.8 Excess Travelling Time

The provisions of clause 17 - Excess Travelling Time apply to an employee who is in a restriction situation for travelling time involved in a recall to duty. Where an employee in a restriction situation is not eligible for Excess Travelling Time for the time spent in travelling for a recall to duty, the relevant restriction allowance payable under clause 16.6.3 will be paid for the time spent in travelling.

- (c) in the case of a part-time employee who works on less than 5 days per week, an amount of time in any pay period determined by multiplying the number of days worked each pay period by 15 minutes. For example: if a part-time employee works 4 days per week, excess travelling time would not be payable under this provision unless the excess time is more than 2 hours in a pay period determined by multiplying 8 days worked each pay period by 15 minutes.

17.3 Maximum Time

Payment will not be made for more than 5 hours in any one day.

17.4 Rate

17.7 Employee Required to Work within a District

An employee may be required to work at any place within a district and may be required to proceed direct to that place of work without proceeding to the head station. If the time necessarily spent by an employee in proceeding direct to and returning from such a place of work establishes a claim for payment for excess travelling time, it shall be dealt with under the general provisions of this clause.

17.8 Eligibility

An employee being paid at a level of Administrative Officer 6 or Postal Manager Grade 3 is not entitled to payment for excess travelling time.

17.9 Meaning of a Day

However, except with the approval of Australia Post, an employee being paid at a level of Administrative Officer Level 6 or Postal Manager Grade 3 is not eligible for payment under this paragraph other than for rostered duty.

18.2 Payments Stand Alone

The additional payments prescribed by this clause will not be taken into account in the computation of overtime or in the determination of any allowance based upon salary, nor will they be paid with respect to any shift for which any other form of penalty payment is made under this Agreement.

18.3 Payment During Training Courses

Shift penalties prescribed by clause 18.1 will be paid during attendance at a management initiated training course or other approved training in relation to Occupational Health and Safety for any shifts which an employee would have performed but for attendance at the course.

18.7.2 Provided that this clause will not operate in cases of emergency certified by the officer-in-charge and notified to the employees concerned by posting up the same in some convenient place, nor in cases of regular changeover of shifts.

18.8 Duty On A Public Holiday

18.8.1 Minimum Payment

The minimum extra payment payable for ordinary duty on a public holiday for each separate attendance will be for four hours. The exceptions to this are where employees are in any restriction situation, when the minimum extra payment will be for 3 hours; or where employees are part-time and the prescribed normal hours of duty for that day are less than 4 hours, in which case the minimum extra payment is the prescribed hours. Where more than one attendance is involved, the minimum payment provisions payable under this clause will not exceed the amount that would have been payable if the employee had remained on duty from the commencing time of duty on the previous attendance to the ceasing time of duty on a subsequent attendance.

the substitute day will be in accordance with clauses 18.1.4 - Saturday Ordinary Duty, 18.1.5 - Sunday Ordinary Duty or 16.1 - Overtime – General Conditions, as appropriate.

18.9 Consultation where changes impact shift penalties generally

18.9.1 Australia Post recognises that shift penalties are an important component of existing employees' take home pay. While it is understood that through the life of this agreement Australia Post will need to make workplace changes to help strengthen its operations in the face of significant commercial challenges, Australia Post will through its best endeavours aim to ensure that it maintains shift penalty rates for those employees who currently receive shift penalty rates, except in circumstances where an employee elects to transfer to a position which did not attract penalty rates at the time of the position becoming vacant. Where any workplace changes are proposed, that may have an impact on shift penalty rates, it is agreed that consultation will occur in a timely manner between relevant senior management and the Union (this also includes transfer requests by employees on compassionate grounds).

19 Annual leave & Long Service Leave

19.1 Entitlement

19.1.1 For each year of service with his or her employer, an employee is entitled to:

- (a) four weeks of paid annual leave; or
- (b) if the employee performs duty in a prescribed remote locality, four weeks of paid annual leave and an additional period of annual leave commensurate with the level of hardship associated with that location.

19.1.2 An employee's entitlement to paid annual leave accrues progressively during a year of service according to the employee's ordinary hours of work, and accumulates from year to year.

- 19.1.3 'Service' has the same meaning as is contained in the FW Act, save that a period of approved leave without pay of up to and no more than 22 working days (continuous or aggregated) will count as service.

19.2 Seven day shift workers

- 19.2.1 In addition to the annual leave entitlement in clause 19.1, under the NES an employee who is a seven day shift worker is entitled to an additional week of annual leave per year.
- 19.2.2 The additional leave for seven day shift workers will accrue at a rate of 1/10 of a week for each Sunday a seven day shift worker is rostered to work.
- 19.2.3 Rostered Sunday overtime shifts do not count for the purposes of clause 19.2.2 where such shifts are less than 3 hours duration. Where a rostered overtime shift commences on a Saturday and extends into Sunday or commences on a Sunday and extends into Monday it is deemed to be a Sunday overtime shift for the purposes of this clause.
- 19.2.4 Where a seven day shift worker is rostered to work on less than 10 Sundays per year, the shift worker is not entitled to the additional week of leave but shall be granted a pro-rata entitlement at the rate of 1/10 of a working week in respect of each Sunday worked.
- 19.2.5 A part-time employee who satisfies the definition of seven day shift worker is not eligible for the additional annual leave unless the employee is usually rostered to work for at least 5 shifts each week or at least the number of shifts a week on average of an equivalent full-time employee.

19.3 Taking paid annual leave

- 19.3.1 Where a period of absence is granted for annual leave, the annual leave credit of the employee is reduced by the period of the leave.

- 19.3.2 If a period during which an employee takes paid annual leave includes a day or part-day that is a public holiday in the place where the employee is based for work purposes, the employee is taken not to be on paid annual leave on that public holiday.

- 19.3.3 The granting of annual leave is subject to the following conditions:

- (a) an application for leave must be submitted in the prescribed manner;
- (b) an employee will be allowed to take annual leave in whole or in part, at a time convenient to the employee, consistent with the operational requirements of Australia Post and having regard to employee and/or workplace requests; and
- (c) where operational or audit requirements necessitate, Australia Post may roster an employee to take leave at a nominated time, whether or not an application has been made by the employee.

- 19.3.4 Ordinarily leave is to be taken in the year in which it accrues.

- 19.3.5 An employee is not allowed to take leave in excess of available credits, except with the approval of Australia Post.

- 19.3.6 If, at any time, the leave credit of an employee exceeds eight weeks, Australia Post may direct the employee to take an amount of annual leave that will reduce the annual leave credit to eight weeks.

19.4 Advance Payment

An employee proceeding on annual leave who has requested payment at least three weeks prior to the commencement of leave is entitled to receive payment in advance.

19.5 Cashing Out Annual Leave

- 19.5.1 Australia Post may agree to cash out part of an employee's accrued annual leave provided that in each case:

- (a) the employee's remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave is not less than 4 weeks (or 4 weeks in the case of a seven day shift worker);
- (b) each cashing out must be the subject of separate agreement in writing between Australia Post and the employee; and
- (c) the employee must be paid at the full amount that would have been payable to the employee had the employee taken the leave that the employee has forgone.

19.6 Termination Payment

In addition to any other amounts payable under this Agreement, Australia Post must pay to an employee whose employment ceases, an amount equal to the salary that would have been payable had the employee commenced annual leave for a period equivalent to credits at the time of cessation, including annual leave loading.

19.7 Recovery of Payments

Nothing in this clause affects Australia Post's rights to recover salary in respect of a period of leave granted in excess of an employee's credit.

19.8 Annual Leave Loading

19.8.1 Amount

In addition to any amounts payable during a period of annual leave, an employee shall, for the period of leave, receive a loading of the greater of:

- (a) 17.5% of the salary of the employee as at the commencement of the period of leave; or
- (b) any additional payments for shift, Saturday or Sunday duty not in excess of prescribed weekly hours which the employee would have performed had annual leave not been taken.

19.8.2 Timing of Payment

Payment of the Annual Leave Loading is to be made at the same time as payment for such leave.

19.9 Long Service Leave

The Long Service Leave (Commonwealth Employees) Act 1976 applies to Australia Post employees.

20 Personal leave

- 20.1 The provisions of this clause apply to permanent and fixed term full-time and part-time employees (on a pro-rata basis) but do not apply to casual employees. The entitlements of casual employees are set out in clause 10.

20.2 Definitions

The term immediate family has the same meaning as is contained in the FW Act.

20.3 Amount of Paid Personal Leave

- 20.3.1 Paid personal leave is available to an employee, other than a casual employee, when the employee is absent:
- (a) due to personal illness or injury (sick leave); or
 - (b) for the purposes of caring for or supporting an immediate family or household member who is sick and requires the employee's care or support or who requires care due to an unexpected emergency (carer's leave).
- 20.3.2 The amount of personal leave to which a full-time employee is entitled depends on how long the employee has worked for Australia Post and accrues (according to the employee's ordinary hours of work) as follows:

Period of Employment	Day(s)
On completion of each 20 days continuous employment during the first 12 months, subject to a maximum of 15 days	1
On completion of 12 months employment	15
On completion of each additional 12 months employment	15

20.4 Unused Personal Leave

20.4.1 In any year, unused personal leave accrues at the rate of the lesser of:

- (a) 15 days less the amount of sick leave and carer's leave taken from the current year's personal leave entitlement in that year; or
- (b) the balance of that year's unused personal leave.

20.4.2 Maximum Accrual

- (a) Personal leave can therefore only accrue at a maximum rate of 15 days per year, such leave is cumulative.

20.5 Personal Leave to Care for an Immediate Family or Household Member (Carer's Leave)

The entitlement in clause 20.3.1(b) is subject to the employee being responsible for the care or support of the person concerned. In normal circumstances, an employee is not entitled to take carer's leave under this clause if another person has taken leave to care for the same person.

20.6 Employee Must Give Notice

The manager or another appropriate employee must be informed, prior to the commencement of duty, if practicable, of the employee's inability to attend for duty. In the case of carer's leave the employee shall, wherever practicable, give Australia Post notice of the leave prior to the absence, the name of the person requiring care and their relationship to the employee, the reasons for taking such leave and the estimated length of absence. If it is not practicable for the employee to give prior notice of absence, the employee shall notify the employer by telephone of such absence at the first opportunity on the day of absence.

20.7 Evidence Supporting Claim

20.7.1 An application for sick leave must be supported by the certificate of a duly qualified medical practitioner or other evidence approved by Australia Post.

20.7.2 In relation to the provision of evidence for carer's leave:

- (a) for carer's leave of a single day duration, where it is not feasible to obtain a medical certificate for that single day's absence, the employee may instead provide a statutory declaration establishing the illness of the person to whom the carer's leave relates and indicating that the employee is responsible for the care/support of the person concerned; and
- (b) for carer's leave of more than a single day duration, the employee must provide a medical certificate establishing the illness of the person to whom the carer's leave relates and indicating that the employee is responsible for the care/support of the person concerned.

20.7.3 When taking leave to care for members of their immediate family or household who require care due to an unexpected emergency, the employee must, if required by Australia Post, establish by production of documentation acceptable to Australia Post or a statutory declaration of the nature of the emergency and that such emergency resulted in the person concerned requiring care or support from the employee.

20.8 Unpaid Personal Leave

Where an employee has exhausted all paid personal leave entitlements, they are entitled to take unpaid personal leave to care for or support members of their immediate family or household who are sick and require care or support or who require care due to an unexpected emergency. Australia Post and the employee shall agree on the period. In the absence of agreement, the employee is entitled to take up to two days per occasion, provided the requirements of 20.6, 20.7.2 and 20.7.3 are met.

20.9 Sick Leave Without Certificate

20.9.1 Despite 20.7.1 and subject to the availability of credits, Australia Post may grant sick leave without production of a medical certificate for up to 36.75 hours in any sick leave year, subject to any such leave not exceeding 3 continuous days.

20.9.2 Except as provided in clause 20.9.1, where sick leave is granted without production of medical evidence, such leave is without pay.

20.10 Sick Leave Debits

Sick leave taken by an employee is debited against available sick leave credits, except where sick leave taken on a Public Holiday, which but for the sick leave would have been observed, is not debited.

20.11 Illness During Annual Leave

If an employee produces satisfactory medical evidence of illness during annual leave, the absence will be recorded as sick leave and annual leave recredited accordingly, provided:

- (a) the employee has obtained a medical certificate;
- (b) the medical evidence indicates the employee was unfit for duty;
- (c) sick leave credits are available; and
- (d) the medical evidence is provided at the time of illness or if that is not possible as soon as practicable thereafter.

20.12 Failure to Produce Satisfactory Evidence

Despite anything else contained in this clause, where an employee has failed to produce satisfactory evidence to support an application for sick leave, Australia Post may direct that employee, in writing, that all future applications for sick leave for such period as is specified in the direction must be supported by evidence in accordance with clause 20.7.1.

20.13 Employee to Provide Medical Report

20.13.1 Australia Post may require an employee to furnish a medical report or undergo an examination by a medical practitioner nominated by Australia Post where the employee:

- (a) may be unfit or incapable of discharging duties;
- (b) may be a danger to other employees or members of the public due to state of health;
- (c) has been absent through illness for a continuous period exceeding 13 weeks; or
- (d) has been absent through illness and the authorised employee believes that the employee is not fit to resume duty.

20.13.2 An employee who is required to furnish a medical report or undergo a medical examination under clause 20.13 must do so as soon as practicable.

20.13.3 Australia Post will follow the WorkReady Process (Attachment K), as agreed from time to time between Australia Post and the Union, in requiring an employee to furnish a medical report in relation to a possible work related injury.

20.14 National Attendance Guidelines Procedures

Australia Post agrees that under the National Attendance Guidelines (or any replacement Guidelines) it will not:

- (a) identify individual employees for attendance improvement management based on specified trigger points in an arbitrary or automatic manner which does not have regard to personal circumstances; or
- (b) direct employees to attend Australia Post Nominated Doctors for same day medical assessments.

20.15 Sick Leave Without Pay

An employee who has exhausted all leave allowable with pay may be granted leave without pay, provided that:

- (a) in respect of the first year of continuous employment, the aggregate period of any sick leave without pay must not exceed 20 days; and
- (b) in respect of any continuous period of absence thereafter, leave with and without pay must not exceed 78 weeks.

20.16 Invalidity Retirement Date

The retirement of an employee on the ground of invalidity or on the ground of inability or incapacity for medical reasons shall not, except with the consent of the employee, be effected earlier than the date on which the employee's sick leave credit is exhausted. However, this is subject to a further credit of sick leave not accruing subsequent to the date of the decision to retire the employee.

20.17 Reappointment after retirement

An employee who has been retired on the grounds of invalidity or inability or incapacity for medical reasons, if subsequently reappointed, is to be re-credited with the sick leave credits held immediately prior to retirement.

20.18 War service sick leave

Despite anything contained in this clause, where satisfactory medical evidence is produced that absence from duty was on account of illness which originated from war service, the employee may be granted war service sick leave. War service sick leave is paid leave, and counts as service for all purposes. Where war service sick leave credits have expired, the employee may apply for sick leave under this clause.

20.19 Recognition of Prior Public Employment

20.19.1 Continuous employment with one or more other public employers may be regarded as service with Australia Post for sick leave purposes. For permanent employees, employment is regarded as continuous if any break in public employment does not exceed two months.

20.19.2 Public employers in this provision has the same meaning as public employers who are covered by the prior service provisions of the Long Service Leave (Commonwealth Employees) Act 1976.

21 Compassionate leave

21.1 Entitlement

An employee is entitled to up to two days (and in the case of a death, up to three days) of paid compassionate leave for each occasion (a permissible occasion), subject to the production of satisfactory evidence required by Australia Post, when a member of the employee's immediate family, or a member of the employee's household:

- (a) contracts or develops a personal illness that poses a serious threat to his or her life;
- (b) sustains a personal injury that poses a serious threat to his or her life; or
- (c) dies.

21.2 Taking of compassionate leave

21.2.1 An employee may take compassionate leave for a particular permissible occasion if the leave is taken:

- (a) to spend time with the member of the employee's immediate family or household who has contracted or developed the personal illness, or sustained the personal injury, referred to in clause 21.1; or
- (b) after the death of the member of the employee's immediate family or household referred to in clause 21.1.

21.2.2 An employee must give Australia Post notice of taking compassionate leave:

- (a) as soon as practicable (which may be a time after the leave has started); and
- (b) provide details of the period or expected periods of the leave.

21.2.3 An employee may take compassionate leave for a particular permissible occasion if the leave is taken as:

- (a) a single continuous period; or
- (b) separate periods of 1 day each up to the total number of days; or
- (c) any separate periods to which the employee and Australia Post agree.

21.3 Personal illness or injury

If the permissible occasion is the contraction or development of a personal illness, or the sustaining of a personal injury, the employee may take the compassionate leave for that occasion at any time while the illness or injury persists.

21.4 Immediate family

The term immediate family has the same meaning as is contained in the FW Act.

22 Parental leave

22.1.1 Subject to the terms of this clause, or more beneficial terms in the FW Act applying to an employee, employees are entitled to Parental and Adoption Leave and to work part-time in connection with the birth or adoption of a child.

22.1.2 The provisions of this clause apply to permanent and fixed term full-time and part-time employees and eligible casual employees, but do not apply to other casual employees.

22.1.3 An eligible casual employee means a casual employee:

- (a) employed by Australia Post on a regular and systematic basis for several periods of employment or on a regular and systematic basis for an ongoing period of employment during a period of at least 12 months; and
- (b) who has, but for the pregnancy or the decision to adopt, a reasonable expectation of ongoing employment.

22.1.4 For the purposes of this clause, continuous service is work for Australia Post on a regular and systematic basis (including any period of authorised leave or absence).

22.1.5 Australia Post must not fail to re-engage a casual employee because:

- (a) the employee or employee's spouse is pregnant; or
- (b) the employee is or has been immediately absent on parental leave.

22.1.6 The rights of Australia Post in relation to engagement and re-engagement of casual employees are not affected, other than in accordance with this clause.

22.2 Definitions

22.2.1 For the purpose of this clause, child means:

- (a) a child of the employee; or
- (b) a child under the age of 16 years who is placed with the employee for the purposes of adoption, other than a child or step-child of the employee or of the spouse of the employee or a child who has previously lived continuously with the employee for a period of six months or more as at the day of placement or the expected day of placement.

22.2.2 Subject to clause 22.2.3, in this clause spouse includes a de facto or former spouse.

22.2.3 In relation to clause 22.8 - Adoption Leave, spouse includes a de facto spouse but does not include a former spouse.

22.2.4 Primary carer means the parent with the primary responsibility to care for a newborn or adopted child.

22.3 Basic Entitlement - After twelve months continuous service, an employee is entitled to a total of 52 weeks unpaid parental leave if the leave is associated with:

- (a) the birth of a child of the employee or their spouse or de facto partner; or
- (b) the placement of a child with the employee for adoption; and
- (c) the employee has or will have responsibility for the care of the child.

22.4 For the avoidance of doubt, this clause does not limit entitlements provided to employees under the FW Act that are more generous than those set out in this clause.

22.4.1 Parental leave during the 24-month period starting on the date of birth or day of placement of the child may be taken in accordance with the requirements of the FW Act:

- (a) as a single continuous period;
- (b) flexibly for up to 100 days; or
- (c) as a combination of both clauses (a) and (b) above.

22.4.2 If the parental leave is birth-related leave for an employee who is pregnant with, or gives birth to, the child, the period of leave may start:

- (a) up to six weeks before the expected date of birth of the child;
- (b) earlier if the employer and employee agree; or
- (c) during the 24-month period starting on the date of birth of the child, but must end during the 24-month period starting on the date of birth of the child.

22.5 Paid parental leave – primary carer

22.5.1 An employee who is a primary carer is entitled to convert 14 weeks of their unpaid parental leave entitlement under clause 22.3 into paid parental leave. This paid leave is inclusive of any entitlement to paid parental leave that an employee may be entitled to under legislation.

22.5.2 Paid parental leave will count towards continuous service.

22.6 Special Parental Leave

Where the pregnancy of an employee not then on parental leave terminates after 12 weeks other than by the birth of a living child, then the employee may take unpaid special parental leave of such periods as a registered medical practitioner certifies as necessary.

22.7 Unpaid parental leave – secondary carer

22.7.1 An employee is entitled to unpaid secondary carer leave for up to 52 weeks after the birth of a child of a spouse.

22.7.2 An employee will provide to Australia Post at least ten weeks prior to each proposed period of unpaid secondary carer leave:

- (a) a certificate from a registered medical practitioner which names the spouse, states that they are pregnant and the expected date of birth, or states the date on which the birth took place; and
- (b) written notification of the dates on which they propose to start and finish the period of unpaid secondary carer leave.

22.7.3 The employee will not be in breach of clause 22.7.2 if the failure to give the required period of notice is because of the birth occurring earlier than expected, the death of the spouse, or other compelling circumstances.

22.8 Adoption Leave

22.8.1 An employee is entitled to unpaid adoption leave for up to 52 weeks after the adoption of a child.

22.8.2 The employee will notify Australia Post at least ten weeks in advance of the date of commencement of adoption leave and the period of leave to be taken. An employee may commence adoption leave prior to providing such notice, where through circumstances beyond the control of the employee, the adoption of a child takes place earlier.

22.8.3 Australia Post may require an employee to provide confirmation from the appropriate government authority of the placement.

22.8.4 Where the placement of a child for adoption with an employee does not proceed or continue, the employee will notify Australia Post immediately and Australia Post will nominate a time not exceeding four weeks from receipt of notification for the employee's return to work.

22.8.5 An employee will not be in breach of this clause as a consequence of failure to give the stipulated periods of notice if such failure results from a requirement of an adoption agency to accept earlier or later placement of a child, the death of a spouse, or other compelling circumstances.

22.8.6 An employee seeking to adopt a child is entitled to unpaid leave for the purpose of attending any compulsory interviews or examinations as are necessary as part of the adoption procedure. The employee and Australia Post should agree on the length of the unpaid leave. Where agreement cannot be reached, the employee is entitled to take up to two days unpaid leave. Where paid leave is available to the employee, Australia

Post may require the employee to take such leave instead.

22.9 Variation of period of parental leave

Unless agreed otherwise between Australia Post and the employee, an employee may apply to Australia Post to extend the period of parental leave on one occasion or reduce their period of parental leave. Any such change to be notified as soon as possible but no less than four weeks prior to the commencement of the changed arrangements.

22.10 Parental leave and other entitlements

22.10.1 An employee may in lieu of or in conjunction with parental leave, access any annual leave or long service leave entitlements which they have accrued subject to the total amount of leave not exceeding 52 weeks or longer as agreed under clause 22.14.1:

- (a) managers will grant any application for access to these leave credits for up to one week for secondary carer leave or adoption leave purposes during the period within 3 weeks of the birth or adoption. The employee is to provide the manager with appropriate evidence of the birth or adoption of the child as well as appropriate notice; and
- (b) managers will be encouraged to give favourable consideration to any application by an employee for use of accrued annual leave or long service leave credits in excess of one week for secondary carer leave and adoption leave purposes, subject to sufficient notice being given by the employee of the expected commencement date of such leave and the period of leave to be taken.

22.11 Transfer to a safe job

22.11.1 Where an employee is pregnant and, in the opinion of a registered medical practitioner, illness or risks arising out of the pregnancy or hazards connected with the work assigned to the employee make it inadvisable for the employee to continue at their present work, the employee will, if Australia Post deems it practicable, be transferred to a safe job at the rate and on the conditions attaching to that job until the commencement of parental leave.

22.11.2 If the transfer to a safe job is not practicable, then the employee may be entitled to paid or unpaid no safe job leave in accordance with the FW Act. If the employee is not entitled to this leave, the employee may elect, or Australia Post may require the employee, to commence parental leave for such period as is certified necessary by a registered medical practitioner.

22.12 Returning to work after a period of parental leave

22.12.1 An employee will notify their intention to return to work after a period of parental leave at least four weeks prior to the expiration of the leave.

22.12.2 An employee will be entitled to the position which they held immediately before proceeding on parental leave. In the case of an employee transferred to a safe job pursuant to clause 22.11, the employee will be entitled to return to the position they held immediately before such transfer.

22.12.3 Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available for which the employee is qualified and is capable of performing, the employee will be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of their former position.

22.13 Replacement employees

22.13.1 A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged or temporarily promoted or transferred, as a result of an employee proceeding on parental leave.

22.13.2 Before Australia Post engages a replacement employee, it must inform that person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.

22.14 Right to request

22.14.1 An employee entitled to parental leave pursuant to the provisions of this clause may request Australia Post to allow the employee:

- (a) to extend the period of unpaid parental leave or adoption leave by a further continuous period of leave not exceeding 12 months; or
- (b) to return from a period of parental leave with a change in working arrangements (including on a part-time basis) while the child:
 - (i) is under school age; or
 - (ii) is under 18 and has a disability to assist the employee in reconciling work and parental responsibilities.

22.14.2 Australia Post shall consider the request having regard to the employee's circumstances and, provided the request is genuinely based on the employee's parental responsibilities, may only refuse the request on reasonable grounds related to the effect on the workplace or Australia Post's business. Such grounds might include cost, lack of adequate replacement staff, loss of efficiency and the impact on customer service.

22.14.3 The employee's request and Australia Post's decision made under clause 22.14 must be recorded in writing.

22.14.4 Where an employee wishes to make a request under clause 22.14.1(b), such a request must be made as soon as possible but no less than seven weeks prior to the date upon which the employee is due to return from parental leave.

22.15 Communication during parental leave

22.15.1 Where an employee is on parental leave and a definite decision has been made to introduce significant change at the workplace, Australia Post shall take reasonable steps to:

- (a) make information available in relation to any significant effect the change will have on the status or responsibility level of the position the employee held before commencing parental leave; and
- (b) provide an opportunity for the employee to discuss any significant effect the change will have on the status or responsibility level of the position the employee held before commencing parental leave.

22.15.2 The employee shall take reasonable steps to inform Australia Post about any significant matter that will affect the employee's decision regarding the duration of parental leave to be taken, whether the employee intends to return to work and whether the employee intends to request to return to work on a part-time basis.

22.15.3 The employee shall also notify Australia Post of changes of address or other contact details which might affect Australia Post's capacity to comply with clause 22.15.1.

23 Requests for flexible working arrangements

23.1 Employee may request change in working arrangements

23.1.1 An employee who:

- (a) is a parent, or has responsibility for the care of a child who is school aged or under;

Note: Examples of changes in working arrangements include changes in hours of work, changes in patterns of work and changes in location of work.

23.1.2 The employee is not entitled to make the request unless:

- (a) for an employee other than a casual employee – the employee has completed at least 12 months of continuous service with the employer immediately before making the request; or
- (b) for a casual employee – the employee:
 - (i) is a long-term casual employee of the employer immediately before making the request; and
 - (ii) has a reasonable expectation of continuing employment by the employer on a regular and systematic basis.

23.2 Formal requirements

23.2.1 The request must:

- (a) be in writing; and
- (b) set out details of the change sought and of the reasons for the change.

23.3 Responding to the request

23.3.1 The employer must give the employee a written response to the request within 21 days, stating whether the employer grants, grants with modifications or refuses the request.

23.3.2 The employer may refuse the request if:

- (a) the employer has:
 - (i) discussed the request with the employee; and
 - (ii) genuinely tried to reach an agreement with the employee about making changes to the employee's working arrangements to accommodate the employee's circumstances,
- (b) the employer and the employee have not reached such an agreement;
- (c) the employer has had regard to the consequences of the refusal for the employee; and
- (d) the refusal is on reasonable business grounds.

23.3.3 If the employer refuses the request, the written response under clause 23.3.1 must include details of the reasons for the refusal in accordance with the FW Act.

23.3.4 Employees may dispute an employer's refusal of a flexibility request in accordance with the FW Act.

24 Study/Examination leave

Study and examination leave may be granted to approved students in accordance with Australia Post's Principal Determination.

25 Leave to attend as witness in industrial proceedings

25.1 Leave without deduction from ordinary pay shall be granted to any employee summoned to appear as a witness in proceedings under the FW Act as may be amended from time to time. The leave shall be only for such time as that employee is necessarily absent from duty attending as a witness.

25.2 Leave granted under this clause shall count for all purposes as a period of service.

26 Jury service

26.1 Leave Granted

An employee summoned as a juror shall promptly notify the appropriate supervisor and shall be granted leave of absence on full pay for the period necessary for the attendance at court.

26.2 Jury Fees

An employee must pay to Australia Post so much of any jury fees received less costs necessarily incurred as Australia Post considers reasonable.

27 Work/Life

27.1 The Parties are committed to the application of work/life initiatives throughout all workplaces but recognise that such initiatives must be mutually beneficial to both the business and employees and consistent with operational needs.

27.2 The Parties agree:

- (a) to promote work/life initiatives provided such arrangements are negotiated and agreed to by management and the employee and meet the operational needs of the business:
 - (i) extension of short term absences for non-family purposes provided the make-up and time off arrangements are jointly agreed;

28.4 Substitution of Public Holidays By Agreement

Australia Post and an individual employee may agree to the employee taking another day as the public holiday in lieu of the day which is being observed as a public holiday in the employee's workplace.

29 Notice boards

To facilitate work related communication between employees and their Union and/or employee representatives at the workplace, the employer will permit the use of notice boards. The employer retains the right to reject and remove the posting of any material which is not in relation to this Agreement or is not authorised by the Divisional or Branch Secretary or equivalent Union position.

30 Uniforms

- 30.1 Australia Post will hold a national uniform forum annually at which general discussion can occur on issues relating to the national management of uniforms. This national forum may occur as two separate meetings to ensure issues specific to Postal Services uniforms and Retail Services uniforms are properly addressed. The national forum will be made up of national representatives with no more than four participants from Australia Post, and four participants from the Union.

- 30.2 Australia Post is of the view that a good method of assessing the suitability and wearability of uniforms is through the use of focus groups. Focus groups will be established on an "as needs" basis to assess the suitability and functionality of new uniform items. The Union covering the relevant employee classifications to utilise the uniforms being tested may nominate up to 30% of the employee participants in any uniform focus group established. For example, if a uniform focus group is to involve 60 employee participants, then the relevant Union/s may nominate collectively up to 18 employees to participate in that uniform focus group.

- 30.3 Australia Post will consult with the Union on any changes proposed to the Clothing Manual.

31 Employee consultation

- 31.1 The Parties agree that consultation is important in maintaining positive working relationships between Australia Post, its employees and the relevant Unions. Australia Post acknowledges that consultation prior to any significant change and on the consequences of that change is critical to maintaining positive workplace relationships and positive business outcomes.
- 31.2 The Parties recognise that the principles of consultation stated in Commissioner Smith's decision in CEPU v Vodafone Network Pty Ltd (Print 911257) reflect its intention with respect to consultation. In particular, the Parties agree with the following statement by Commissioner Smith in that decision at paragraph 25:

"Consultation is not perfunctory advice on what is about to happen. This is [a] common misconception. Consultation is providing the individual, or other relevant parties, with a bonafide opportunity to influence the decision maker."

31.3 Australia Post and the Union agree:

- (a) that the focus of consultation will be on the impact of Australia Post's decisions on its employees;
- (b) that "significant change" relates to impacts on employees at a facility, or organisational part of a facility, State or National level;
- (c) that agreements negotiated at the National level are not to be renegotiated at State or local level;
- (d) to maintain positive two-way relationships with unions and employees at a State and National level including a focus on effective workplace resolution of, and consultation on, relevant issues;
- (e) to take all reasonable steps to ensure differences are dealt with constructively, including prompt consideration of matters raised by any party during the process;
- (f) that relationships will be kept under regular review at both State and National level to ensure they remain positive and constructive and are maintained at all levels of the business; and
- (g) that if consultation is not operating effectively, prompt joint action from higher levels will be taken to remedy the process.

31.4 Australia Post will, prior to making any significant change for reasons including economic, technological, structural reasons or similar nature, commit to the following actions:

- (a) as soon as practicable before making changes which directly affect employees, inform the affected employees (including any representative appointed by the affected employee) and the Union about the details of the proposed changes. The information provided to the Union will include the nature of and reasons for the proposed change; the number and categories of employees likely to be affected and the time when, or the period over which, the employer intended to carry out the proposed change; and

- (b) as soon as practicable after deciding and before changing an employee's employment subject to the decision, Australia Post will give the affected employees (including any representative appointed by the affected employee) an opportunity to consult on measures to avert and/or mitigate the effects on employees including adverse effects on job security, reduction in income, change of working hours for individuals, change of worksite, change to skill requirements, adverse impact on equal employment opportunity or occupational health and safety.

31.5 Where Australia Post proposes to introduce changes to the regular roster and/or alter ordinary hours of work, Australia Post will consult with the employee or employees affected and their representatives, if any, about the change proposed. To assist in this discussion Australia Post will provide to the employee or affected employees information about the proposed change, including the nature of the change and when the change is proposed to commence. Australia Post will invite the employee or employees affected (and their representatives, if any) to give any views about the impact of the proposed change (including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities). Prior to making a change Australia Post will give consideration to any views about the impact of the proposed change that are given by the employee or employees concerned and/ or their representative. This requirement to consult does not apply where an employee has irregular, sporadic or unpredictable working hours.

31.6 In relation to effects on staff in respect of major change, where requested by an employee/s, Australia Post and the Union agree to work together to ensure effective consultation with staff (this may include where agreed, joint briefings with staff).

31.7 Australia Post and the Union agree to conduct State and local level consultation using Attachment C – Consultation Framework Guide, as a guide on how State and local level consultation will operate.

32 Employment security

32.1 The Parties recognise that employment security is dependent on Australia Post's ability to adapt, grow and change to sustain a viable and profitable business. Where this business imperative could lead to changes that significantly impact employees, the Parties recognise that the provisions in clause 31 – Employee Consultation, provide an employee and their union representative the right to be consulted over these changes.

32.2 Australia Post is committed to continuing the principles and benefits found in the Australia Post RRR Agreement, which forms part of this Agreement in Attachment J, with its focus on voluntary retrenchments, retraining and redeployment. During the life of this Agreement the emphasis shall be on retraining for new skills and redeployment in preference to redundancy following any position occupied by an employee being identified as surplus to requirement, subject to:

- (a) employees and Unions co-operating with retraining to facilitate redeployment; and
- (b) employees affected by workplace change accepting reasonable offers for retraining and redeployment.

33 Learning and development

33.1 The Parties are committed to meeting the ongoing learning and development needs of employees in order to ensure a productive and skilled workforce with access to career pathways.

33.2 Consultation will occur between Australia Post and the Union regarding learning and development in all Joint Consultative Committees.

33.3 Learning and development will be aligned to the agreed competency standards and, where possible, the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF). Where learning and development is aligned to the AQF this will lead to nationally recognised qualifications under the relevant industry training package. This ensures the knowledge and skills obtained:

- (a) are relevant to the requirements of the workplace and the work performed; and
- (b) support employees to undertake their jobs in an efficient and satisfying way.

33.4 Employees will have equitable access to learning and development opportunities. Training and assessment methods will employ appropriate measures to address literacy and numeracy barriers experienced by employees.

33.5 Training and assessment required for the employee's current duties will be conducted, where possible, during normal working hours with costs met by Australia Post. Training during working hours is paid time. Where an employee is required to attend training out of hours the training time will be treated as paid time in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. Provided that normal change of shift provisions may apply to attendance at training.

33.6 Australia Post acknowledges that it has a responsibility to provide learning and development. Priority will be given to consultation at the area/facility level in developing learning and development plans for the facility. Where qualifications are required for an individual to perform his/her work, relevant individual plans must be developed. Learning and development plans should be developed within 12 months of commencement of the Agreement.

33.7 Where there is a roll out of any assessment processes Australia Post will enter into discussions with the relevant Union to establish a skills training program to ensure that over time internal assessors are available in Australia Post.

33.8 An individual may elect to undertake an assessment in relation to their current competencies, prior to undertaking any further training to acquire competencies.

34 Employee conduct and discipline

34.1 Australia Post has the right to dismiss an employee, impose a penalty of a reduction of up to two increments for a period of up to 12 months (or equivalent penalty), or to transfer an employee to another position of the same or a lower classification for behaviour or performance which warrants such action, including:

- (a) misconduct or wilful neglect of duty or grossly negligent conduct;
- (b) incompetence or inefficiency for reasons within the employee's control; and
- (c) failure to observe Australia Post's 'Our Ethics' Policy.

34.2 Except in the case of serious and wilful misconduct or grossly negligent conduct (see below), Australia Post will ensure that:

- (a) employees are counselled and/or given a warning in order to assist them to maintain acceptable standards of behaviour and performance; and

- (b) no employee is dismissed or transferred for a first breach of Australia Post's 'Our Ethics' Policy.

34.3 Grossly negligent conduct would apply in isolated instances only. For the purpose of this clause, such conduct involves a reckless act or omission which causes or could cause significant damage or harm and which would adversely affect the employment relationship. Decisions involving dismissal or transfer which are based on gross negligence (but not serious and wilful matters) should not be taken without prior referral to the relevant Business Unit or People and Culture General Manager.

34.4 An employee may be suspended pending a decision as to the action to be taken under clause 34.1 and such suspension shall be with pay, provided that suspension may be without pay where:

- (a) criminal proceedings are pending; or
- (b) police investigation involving a serious criminal act is involved which would adversely affect the employment relationship.

34.5 In exercising these rights, Australia Post shall not take action which is harsh, unjust or unreasonable.

34.6 Australia Post shall furnish written advice to an employee of a decision under clause 34.1 and of reasons for the decision together with details of the procedures for lodging an application for review.

34.7 Where transfer, dismissal or penalty under clause 34.1 is considered to have been harsh, unjust or unreasonable, the employee concerned may submit an application for review of the decision by a Board of Reference. Any such application must be lodged within 14 days of the transfer, penalty, or dismissal, in accordance with procedures established by Australia Post. Employees will also have a right to seek a review of such suspension under clause

34.4(b) by a Board of Reference once the disciplinary process has been implemented.

34.8 Board of Reference

34.8.1 For the purposes of clause 34.7, a Board of Reference shall be constituted by a Chairperson as may be agreed upon by Australia Post and the Union, including those at the State level.

34.8.2 The General Manager of the FWC shall be requested to appoint a Board of Reference Chairperson for the duration of the Agreement where the parties are unable to agree to a Chairperson.

34.8.3 A Board of Reference shall seek to resolve any application for review submitted to it, having regard to whether the decision was harsh, unjust or unreasonable.

34.8.4 A Board of Reference, in reviewing a decision in relation to which an application is made:

- (a) may inform itself in such manner as it sees fit;
- (b) has discretion as to the procedure to be followed;
- (c) is not bound by the rules of evidence; and
- (d) shall proceed without regard to legal form.

35 Team based work

35.1 Team Based Work – Mail and Parcel Processing

35.1.1 The roll-out of team based work in Mail and Parcel Processing continues to be a long and complex exercise (as it has in many organisations which have gone down similar paths).

35.1.2 It is agreed that this process will continue to be given emphasis during the life of the Agreement, with a view to:

- (a) continuing the progressive roll-out of the team based work model, and the team skills loading for Mail Officers, Parcel Post Officers and technical staff

(where applicable), into agreed mail and parcel processing facilities;

- (b) this roll out being completed during the life of this Agreement; and
- (c) further development of effective team-working at existing facilities with team arrangements being in place including consultation and employee involvement in relation to any changes in accordance with clause 31 – Employee Consultation, of the Agreement.

35.2 Establishment of Teams at a Facility

35.2.1 The team based work concept will be developed in an environment where:

- (a) employees are involved in the initial development of the appropriate team based work structure for their workplace and have the opportunity to commit to its implementation;
- (b) the structure of teams may vary from site to site depending on local circumstances and operational requirements;
- (c) teams are encouraged to take responsibility for the management of the team and to be responsible and accountable for the performance of the work;
- (d) teams are encouraged to build knowledge, make decisions, improve performance and have a sense of ownership and involvement; and
- (e) employees understand the processes which will be followed to make changes over time to the initial facility team design.

35.3 Eligibility for Retention of Team Skills Loading on Transfer

35.3.1 An employee's eligibility to retain team skills loading on redeployment or transfer to a facility that does not have teams accreditation will depend on whether the transfer is voluntary or at the direction of Australia Post under redeployment procedures.

- 35.3.2 An employee in receipt of team skills loading who is redeployed by Australia Post under the terms of the RRR Agreement to a facility that does not have teams accreditation will retain the team skills loading as part of their salary.
- 35.3.3 Where an employee in receipt of team skills voluntarily transfers to a facility that does not have teams accreditation, the employee will not be eligible to retain his or her team skills loading.
- 35.3.4 An employee in receipt of team skills loading who is transferred for disciplinary reasons to a facility without teams accreditation will not retain his or her team skills loading on relocation.

36 Technical maintenance

- 36.1 There is a shared commitment to pro-actively maximise the efficiency, reliability and cost effectiveness of all equipment and as such consistently ensure peak operational outcomes. In recognition of, and subject to such commitment, it is agreed that:
- (a) Australia Post technical staff will continue to undertake the maintenance of core mail processing equipment in the network, with the support of operational staff performing operator care functions as appropriate; and
 - (b) non-core, first in maintenance requiring minor fault rectification, will continue to be provided by Australia Post technicians at retained facilities on a site basis subject to Australia Post's right to extend the single building services maintenance contract arrangements at Strathfield and Dandenong to other facilities. Any such extensions would be subject to practical and efficiency considerations and involve detailed consultation with employees and the Union.

37 Sort/Machine rates

Managers shall not use sort or machine rates in an unreasonable and unfair manner in the management of employees' work or performance.

38 Retail

38.1 Retail outlets

- 38.1.1 Australia Post corporate outlets will continue to remain as the flagships of its retail network.
- 38.1.2 Australia Post is committed to the long term viability of its retail network. This network is currently and will continue to be a mix of corporately owned outlets and privately owned outlets under one of a number of arrangements. It is not intended that the overall mix will change over the term of this Agreement.
- 38.1.3 Australia Post commits to applying the Retail Post Conversion Policy as revised and agreed between Australia Post and the Union, for the term of the Agreement. The Parties recognise that Australia Post may seek to change the policy during the term of the Agreement. In such circumstances Australia Post commits to a joint review of the policy with the Union six months before making any changes to the policy. Australia Post has no intention of changing this policy within the first six months of this Agreement being approved by the FWC.

39 Benefit distribution

39.1 Base pay increases

- 39.1.1 The rates of pay in the Australia Post Human Resources Manual Rates of Pay Booklet incorporate the following pay increases:

Year	Percentage Increase (First full pay period in September)
2024	4%
2025	4%
2026	4%

39.2 Superannuation

39.2.1 The pay increases paid under this clause 39 will be the maximum full pay applied for superannuation purposes.

39.3 Machinery and definition provisions

39.3.1 The September 2024 Australia Post Human Resources Manual Rates of Pay Booklet, containing rates of pay as at 15 July 2024, will be submitted to the FWC for the purpose of placing it on the Australia Post Enterprise Agreement file.

39.3.2 For the purposes of clarity of clauses 39.1.1 and 39.2.1, the pay rises in September of each year are paid in respect of the financial year in which they are paid.

39.3.3 The rates of pay for employees in classifications set out in Attachment A of EA2024 and any allowances referred to in EA2024 that are set out in the Australia Post Human Resources Manual Rates of Pay Booklet are incorporated into EA2024.

40 Dispute resolution

40.1 Dispute Resolution

40.1.1 The Parties to the Agreement recognise that there exists a mutual responsibility to work co-operatively to resolve disputes over workplace matters, as far as is practicable, at the workplace level. Accordingly, in relation to a dispute over the application of the Agreement arising during the life of the Agreement, the Parties commit themselves to:

- (a) promptly addressing the dispute within the procedures set out below;
- (b) discussing the dispute in an open and honest way; and

- (c) seeking to resolve the dispute wherever possible at the local level.

40.1.2 While the parties are attempting to resolve the matter, the employee(s) will continue to work in accordance with the Agreement and their contract of employment, unless the employee(s) has a reasonable concern about an immediate threat to their health or safety. In such circumstances and subject to Part 5, Division 6 – Right to Cease or Direct Cessation of Unsafe Work of the WHS Act, the employee(s) must not unreasonably fail to comply with a direction by Australia Post to perform other available work that is appropriate for the employee(s) to perform.

40.1.3 In resolving any dispute, the Parties will have regard to the following principles:

- (a) Australia Post is required to run a profitable postal service in an increasingly competitive and global marketplace. As a result of these circumstances, it is imperative that Australia Post undertake workplace changes. The Union recognise that there are business challenges facing Australia Post and that workplace changes are necessary. The Union are committed to working with Australia Post to ensure that change occurs effectively while ensuring that the best interests of its members are considered and taken into account at all times.
- (b) To achieve these objectives, Australia Post must be able to:
 - (i) operate the business efficiently;
 - (ii) determine and allocate resources;
 - (iii) implement both large and small change programs in an efficient, timely and cost effective manner;
 - (iv) explore means of protecting and expanding its business opportunities; and
 - (v) provide fair and equitable treatment to its employees and provide safe workplaces that support employee diversity and flexibility.

- (c) In order to be successful and ensure the long-term viability of Australia Post, the Parties acknowledge that Australia Post has accountability to:
- (i) provide services to the customer in a manner required by the customer and to meet its Community Service Obligations;
 - (ii) provide a reasonable return on its assets and pay a reasonable dividend to its shareholder; and
 - (iii) provide fair pay and conditions to its employees in a workplace that values the treatment of employees with dignity and respect.
- (d) The Parties also acknowledge that the Union have an obligation to their members to:
- (i) represent their interests;
 - (ii) ensure that workplace change occurs in a way that minimises negative impacts on employees wherever possible; and
 - (iii) protect jobs, wherever possible, and seek fair and equitable terms and conditions of employment for its members.

40.1.4 An employee who is a party to the dispute may appoint a representative of their choice, including a union representative, for the purposes of the procedures in this clause.

40.2 Dispute Resolution Procedure

40.2.1 If a dispute relates to:

- (a) a matter arising under this Agreement; or
- (b) the National Employment Standards, this clause 40 sets out the escalation process which must be followed to settle the dispute.

40.2.2 The dispute resolution procedures and escalation process set out in this clause 40 do not apply to clauses in this Agreement in which the Parties commit to negotiating a new policy or agreement during the term of this Agreement.

40.3 Internal Negotiations

40.3.1 The employee will discuss the matter with their immediate manager/supervisor. However, in circumstances where the matter may relate to the behaviour or actions of the immediate manager and it would be inappropriate to discuss the matter at that level, the employee may discuss the matter with the next highest level of management.

40.3.2 If the matter is not resolved at that level within a reasonable timeframe, the employee concerned may arrange further discussions involving more senior levels of management or the Union as appropriate.

40.3.3 If the issue involves more than one employee, the employees involved, the Union or the management may raise the issue at the level the parties consider appropriate.

40.4 FWC Conciliation

40.4.1 If the internal negotiations do not resolve the dispute, a party to the dispute may refer the matter to the FWC for conciliation.

40.4.2 The party notifying the dispute will do so by filing with the FWC and serving on all other relevant parties a dispute notification document that sets out a brief description of the dispute, the material facts the disputing party believes to be relevant to the dispute and the desired remedy.

40.5 Independent Mediation

40.5.1 If the conciliation by the FWC has been unsuccessful in resolving the dispute, a party to the dispute may refer the dispute to a third party mediator agreed to by both parties. If the parties are unable to agree on a mediator, the Resolution Institute Mediation Rules will apply in relation to the appointment of a mediator.

40.5.2 Having regard to the terms of this Agreement, the National Employment Standards and the principles set out in clause 40.1.3, the independent mediator must assess the merits of the matter and make a non-binding recommendation that:

- (a) arbitration by the FWC is appropriate on the basis that it raises a genuine question about the interpretation of the Agreement or the National Employment Standards; or
- (b) arbitration by the FWC is not appropriate.

40.5.3 The independent mediator may make non-binding recommendations regarding how the matter may be resolved between the parties prior to arbitration.

40.5.4 The cost of the mediator will be shared equally between the parties and each party will pay its own costs for the mediation.

40.6 Arbitration

40.6.1 If the mediation has been unsuccessful in resolving the dispute, then a party to the dispute may elect to have the matter arbitrated by the FWC.

40.6.2 The FWC may only determine the matter by arbitration if all the conditions set out in this clause 40.6.2 are satisfied:

- (a) the escalation process in this clause 40 has been followed; and
- (b) where the party requesting arbitration is either a Union or Australia Post, that party has been authorised to apply for arbitration by its relevant decision-making body in accordance with their rules which, in respect of the CEPU and CPSU, and Australia Post are set out below:
 - (i) CEPU, Communications Division – Divisional Executive (or any successor body);
 - (ii) CPSU – Executive Council (or any successor body);

(iii) Australia Post – Executive Committee of Australia Post; and

- (c) the FWC is satisfied that the relevant decision-making body of the party requesting arbitration has considered the independent mediator's recommendation in relation to whether arbitration is appropriate for the dispute in authorising the application for arbitration by the FWC.

40.6.3 In arbitrating the dispute, the FWC may:

- (a) make a determination that is binding on the parties; and
- (b) use the powers that are available to it under the FW Act.

40.6.4 A decision that the FWC makes when arbitrating a dispute is a decision for the purpose of Division 3 of Part 5-1 of the FW Act. Therefore, an appeal may be made against the decision.

40.7 Application

Clauses 40.5 to 40.6 will only apply until the date on which a Party to the Agreement successfully applies to the FWC for a protected action ballot in accordance with the FW Act.

40.8 Dispute Resolution Training

40.8.1 To assist in the resolution of disputes at Australia Post and to promote a better understanding of the terms of the Agreement, an authorised union delegate will be granted a leave of absence of three days during the term of the Agreement to attend short courses conducted by a recognised training provider which are specifically directed towards effective dispute resolution and better understanding of the terms of the Agreement. The grant of leave will be subject to:

- (a) the operating requirements of Australia Post; and
- (b) the specific training course and provider being accepted by Australia Post.

40.8.2 An authorised union delegate granted leave of absence under this clause will receive normal pay plus shift penalties if applicable for the period of absence from duty.

41 Salary sacrifice

- 41.1 Any salary sacrifice will require approval by Australia Post and must comply with taxation and other relevant laws and Australia Post policies and procedures and, where salary sacrifice is made to a superannuation fund, the Trust Deed requirements of that fund. Details of any salary sacrifice arrangements must be in writing and signed by the employee and Australia Post.
- 41.2 Prior to engaging in any salary sacrifice arrangement, an employee is advised to obtain independent financial advice concerning the tax effectiveness of the arrangement.
- 41.3 Subject to clause 41.1 a permanent employee may sacrifice salary for the purpose of superannuation or other benefits approved by Australia Post and on such terms and conditions as determined by Australia Post.
- 41.4 Where an employee enters into a salary sacrifice arrangement the employee's pre-salary sacrifice salary is the employee's salary for all purposes that call on salary as a factor.

42 Role of union delegates

Australia Post recognises the role unions play in the workplace and the right of union delegates to represent union members in the workplace.

43 Parties commitment to support workplace change

- 43.1 The Agreement recognises that Australia Post is regulated by the APC Act, which requires Australia Post to meet its dual objective of providing a community service as well as a commercial rate of return. The Parties to this Agreement agree that the best endeavours will be taken to meet these obligations under the APC Act.

- 43.2 The Parties acknowledge that Australia Post needs to achieve productivity gains throughout the life of the Agreement. The Parties commit to proactively supporting and working with Australia Post to support workplace change/flexibility programs and strategic initiatives to improve Australia Post's profitability and customer service performance.
- 43.3 The Parties agree not to unreasonably delay, frustrate or misrepresent the implementation of workplace change, or to otherwise act in a manner inconsistent with this clause.

no longer appropriate, or where a new run is being introduced, the following process will apply:

- (a) trip times recorded by the on-board truck computers during a recent month of heavy mail loads and a recent month of light mail loads will be examined;
- (b) anomalous or abnormal times will be excluded;
- (c) valid trip times for each selected month will be recorded in order from fastest to slowest time;
- (d) 10% of valid times at each end of the range of times recorded for each month will be excluded;

Attachment I - Home Based Work Agreement

1. Title:

Australian Postal Corporation Home Based Work Agreement 1995

2. Application:

This agreement applies to employees employed in classifications appearing in Attachment A:

3. Provisions:

The provisions included in the Agreement are:

HOME BASED WORK ARRANGEMENT

3.1 Where consistent with customer/client service and operational requirements, an employee may request to work from home for a period of time on a regular or temporary basis with the agreement of their manager.

3.2 Australia Post will consider such requests on a case by case basis and approval shall be subject to customer/client service and operational needs being met after consideration of the effect of the proposal on individual workloads and the work area as a whole.

3.3 A Home-Based Work (HBW) arrangement may be:

- (i) varied or discontinued by agreement at either the manager's or employee's request, provided that neither party will unreasonably withhold agreement to vary or discontinue the arrangement; or

- (ii) terminated by the manager after the period of notice agreed upon with the employee in the Letter of Agreement, or where no period of notice has been agreed upon, 4 weeks' notice.

3.4 In addition to 3.3 managers can vary or discontinue a HBW arrangement at any time if it is considered that:

- (i) the arrangement is having an adverse impact on the operational requirements of the employee's work area;
- (ii) the arrangement is considered to be inefficient and/or ineffective; or
- (iii) the employee is failing to comply with any agreed requirements.

3.5 A Letter of Agreement must be signed by the manager and the employee before HBW arrangement is put in place.

Attachment J - Australia Post Redundancy/ Redeployment/ Retraining Agreement

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 This agreement has been negotiated between Australia Post and the CEPU and CPSU acting as a single bargaining unit on behalf of award-based members of all Australia Post unions, and will apply to all such persons from 10 February 1993.

2. OBJECTIVES

- 2.1 In negotiating this agreement, the parties have sought to achieve:
- (i) a process through which job security can be maintained for as many Australia Post employees as possible and any necessary retrenchments will be voluntary, as far as is practicable;
 - (ii) the provision of fair compensation for employees whose employment with Australia Post ceases through retrenchment;
 - (iii) a proper process for the consideration of alternative employment opportunities for excess employees whose genuine desire is for alternative employment within Australia Post; and
 - (iv) involuntary retrenchment from Australia Post only for those excess employees for whom reasonable alternative employment is not available.

- 2.2 The arrangements described in this agreement provide for voluntary retrenchment in all circumstances other than where an employee refuses redeployment, retraining, relocation or transfer to another position, or where, after a comprehensive three month examination, an alternative placement is not able to be found.

3. DEFINITION OF REDUNDANCY

- 3.1 Redundancies may arise in a number of circumstances, including where:
- (i) the number of staff exceeds that required for the efficient and economical operation of the enterprise or parts of the enterprise; and
 - (ii) staff cannot be used effectively because of technological or other changes in work methods, or changes in the nature, location, extent or organisation of the functions of Australia Post.
- 3.2 Accordingly, a potential redundancy situation will be deemed to exist where the operational requirements of Australia Post for employees to carry out work of a particular kind have ceased, or significantly diminished, and Australia Post has determined that the function being undertaken by an employee, will no longer be undertaken within Australia Post, or at that location by Australia Post.

4. ENTITLEMENT TO VOLUNTARY RETRENCHMENT

- 4.1 While this agreement provides avenues by which employees may be selected for voluntary retrenchment or elect to be retrenched voluntarily, it is noted that there is no automatic right to voluntary retrenchment.

4.2 Australia Post specifically reserves the right to reject applications for voluntary retrenchment having regard to its overall staffing requirements and the need to retain necessary, key skills and expertise, for the ongoing viability of the organisation.

5. PROCEDURES FOR DEALING WITH SURPLUS STAFF SITUATIONS

5.1 The procedures for dealing with surplus staff situations depend on whether the surplus positions can be clearly identified.

5.2 Section 6 deals with those situations where specific identification of the position is possible (which includes circumstances where all positions, at a particular level, at a single location, are surplus).

5.3 Section 7 outlines the arrangements to be followed when a number of positions at a level are surplus and the individual positions cannot be identified clearly.

6. CLEARLY IDENTIFIED SURPLUS POSITIONS

6.1 Australia Post will simultaneously advise the National Office and the relevant State Branch of the appropriate union and the occupant of the position that the position/s is excess to requirements. This advice will be provided through Form A (attached). One copy of Form B shall also be provided in relation to each surplus position, but only if agreed by the employee who occupies the position.

6.2 All relevant information is to be provided to the union and will include classification, location, and subject to agreement by the employee concerned, details of the employee. Where consequential changes in staffing structures are proposed, the number and classification of employees in that part of Australia Post, the number and classification of employees expected to be required for the performance of any continuing function in the part of Australia Post affected are also to be provided and subject to agreement by each employee concerned, details of the employees likely to be affected.

6.3 If required, discussions with the relevant union will conclude within two weeks of the provision of advice in Forms A and B but, with Australia Post's agreement, may be extended on a case by case basis.

6.4 The discussions with the relevant union shall include the background to the surplus staffing situation, the measures, if any, which could reduce the incidence of employees becoming surplus to requirements, and any planned recruitment.

6.5 Once the consultative phase is completed and there is confirmation that the position is surplus, or where the union has confirmed that there is no need for discussion, Australia Post may proceed immediately to advise the employee that he/she may elect to be retrenched voluntarily following a one week cooling off period from the date of advice. If the employee so elects, retrenchment will be effected at the conclusion of the formal notice period (four weeks after the end of the cooling off period), or at an earlier date by mutual agreement.

6.6 Where redeployment and/or retraining is the employee's preference, Australia Post will take all available steps to secure such an outcome. The measures to find a suitable position will include full discussions with the individual on all available options across the whole Australia Post organisation.

The union will be involved in those discussions except where the individual indicates that this is not necessary - such involvement should not delay the process. Where there is a vacancy which would permit the redeployment and/or retraining of an employee surplus to requirements, and more than one employee makes application for the vacancy; the redeployee (or most efficient redeployee) will be selected, unless he/she is assessed as not competent for the job.

Where an employee, other than an employee identified for redeployment, is prepared to accept management initiated retrenchment, Australia Post shall retrench that employee to allow redeployment of an employee identified for redeployment or retraining. This will occur within the restrictions outlined in paragraph 4.2 above. In addition to established redeployment mechanisms, which will be activated automatically, the employee will be afforded opportunities to investigate personally employment options inside Australia Post and, where approved by management, outside Australia Post. If requested, personal development training will be made available to the individual to assist in this process.

6.7 After a one month investigation of all available options, or sooner if agreed, Australia Post may initiate redeployment of an employee to another position/location, the function of which the employee is reasonably capable of undertaking, after receipt of necessary training and experience.

6.8 Redeployment involving a change in domicile is to be avoided wherever possible. Such offers of redeployment are not to be made with the objective of having an employee refuse an alternative placement.

Where however the only available change in position involves relocation, and the new work location is of such a distance from the employee's residence as to necessitate a change of domicile, standard relocation arrangements will apply. Employees who do not wish to be relocated can elect to take a retrenchment package.

7. SURPLUS POSITIONS WHICH CANNOT BE CLEARLY IDENTIFIED

7.1 Australia Post will advise the State Branch of the appropriate union that a number of positions are surplus to requirements. This advice will be provided through Form A (attached) and a general advice of surplus positions will be provided to employees in the class or classes of positions at the location/s concerned.

7.2 All relevant information is to be provided to the union and will include classification, location and subject to agreement by the employee concerned details of the employee and, where consequential changes in staffing structures are proposed, the number and classification of employees in that part of Australia Post, the number and classification of employees expected to be required for the performance of any continuing function in the part of Australia Post affected, and subject to agreement by each employee concerned details of the employees likely to be affected.

7.3 Discussion with the appropriate union shall conclude within three weeks of advice on Form A, but, with Australia Post's agreement, may be extended depending on the numbers of positions and complexity of the issues to be addressed.

7.4 The discussion with the relevant union shall include the background to the excess staffing situation, the measures, if any, which could reduce the incidence of employees becoming excess to requirements and any planned recruitment.

7.5 Where the outcome of consultation with the union is confirmation that the positions are surplus, Australia Post may invite all affected employees at that level (or levels) to volunteer for retrenchment.

7.6 Within the specifically reserved right of Australia Post to refuse any application for voluntary retrenchment, the ranking of volunteers will give priority to staff with the longest period of service. Ranking, however, should also have regard to age, job skills, the practicality of redeployment, relocation, retraining and personal circumstances on an individual basis.

7.7 Once a ranking has been established in accordance with section 7.6, the employee(s) will be advised formally that they may elect to be retrenched voluntarily following a one week cooling off period from the date of the advice. Retrenchment will be effected at the conclusion of the formal notice period (four weeks after the end of the one week cooling off period), or earlier by mutual agreement.

7.8 If the number of volunteers is less than the number of excess staff the redeployment and/or retraining measures outlined in section 6.6 apply.

8. INVOLUNTARY RETRENCHMENT

8.1 Where an employee refuses a management initiated redeployment decision made in accordance with this agreement, the employee may be retrenched involuntarily after a period of two weeks from the advice of the management initiated transfer.

8.2 Where it has not been possible to identify suitable redeployment after a three month investigation and no prospect of such redeployment is identifiable, the employee may be retrenched involuntarily after a period of two weeks following advice to the employee and concurrent advice to the relevant union. Payment of four weeks wages will be made in lieu of notice plus the other retrenchment payments provided for in this agreement.

8.3 A retrenchment under Clause 8.2 can be effected only where the General Manager, or the Group Manager, Human Resources in respect of Headquarters staff, certifies that:-

- (i) a minimum 3 month investigation of suitable redeployment opportunities has proceeded across all designation categories of the Corporation;
- (ii) such investigation has failed to identify suitable opportunity, including through the voluntary retrenchment of another employee; and
- (iii) Australia Post has concluded that the employee is not capable of being redeployed or retrained to any other position in the Corporation.

8.4 Where, but for Australia Post's refusal to accept an application for voluntary retrenchment for another employee engaged in the same work, at the same level and in the same location, a surplus employee could have been placed, that employee will not be retrenched involuntarily.

8.5 Without in any way limiting any rights under the FW Act, an employee affected by a decision that he/she be involuntarily retrenched will be informed that he/she has a right to have the decision reviewed by a Board of Reference established under EA2024, subject to such application being made within a two week period from the date of notification of the decision.

8.6 The Board of Reference shall seek to resolve any such applications for review having regard to whether the action was harsh, unreasonable, unjust or unfair.

8.7 Where an employee seeks review of a decision that he/she be involuntarily retrenched, the Board of Reference will expeditiously hear the matter and recommend confirmation, or if it finds that the management certifications have been inappropriately made, revocation of the decision.

8.8 An involuntary retrenchment will be stayed pending the outcome of the Board's considerations.

9. SALARY MAINTENANCE

9.1 The salary of an employee who is identified as surplus to requirements and who does not elect to accept voluntary retrenchment shall be maintained at the level prescribed for the nominal classification of that employee for at least two years from the date of formal notice that the employee is surplus to requirements. An individual review will take place of any excess staff who have been receiving salary maintenance for two years. No redeployee however, will have his/her salary maintenance ceased unless he/she has refused a reasonable opportunity for placement at their nominal level.

9.2 For the purposes of 9.1, salary maintenance will include normal incremental advancement through the former salary range and future wage adjustments awarded to the classification of the position the employee was occupying immediately before the position was declared surplus to requirements.

9.3 Maintenance of higher duties for surplus employees will be paid in accordance with the following:

- (i) where, at date of redeployment, the redeployee is employed on short term higher duties (i.e. up to 6 months) the higher duties payment is to continue as income maintenance for the previously authorised higher duties period; or
- (ii) where, at the date of redeployment, the redeployee is employed on long term higher duties the higher duties payment is to continue as income maintenance for 6 months. Except that where an employee has accrued a minimum of 12 months higher duties service in the previous 14 months, higher duties payment is to continue as income maintenance for 12 months.

10. CONSEQUENTIAL CHANGES/STAFFING AGREEMENT

10.1 Notwithstanding the finalisation of redeployment or retrenchment under this agreement, the normal consultative/participative processes in respect of any consequential changes in staffing structures and the performance of any continuing functions in that part of Australia Post affected by the retrenchment(s) shall apply.

10.2 Nothing in this agreement shall be taken to infer that the unions have given up any rights in respect of consultation/negotiation concerning staffing and staffing structures. Accordingly, it is agreed between the parties that they will adhere to all existing staffing agreements.

11. BENEFITS

11.1 This new benefit framework has been developed on the basis that:

- (i) a comprehensive process for handling situations of redundancy in Australia Post in the future is essential to achieving the proper restructuring of the postal industry and to union acceptance of that restructuring; and
- (ii) Australia Post unions and the ACTU give a firm commitment not to seek flow-on of the arrangements elsewhere.

11.2 The proposed benefit framework is:

- (i) four weeks' pay for each completed year of continuous service up to five years plus a pro-rata payment for each completed month of continuous service since the last completed year of continuous service;

- (ii) three weeks' pay for each completed year of continuous service thereafter, plus a pro-rata payment for each completed month of continuous service since the last completed year of continuous service;
 - (iii) for employees over fifty years of age, four weeks' pay for each year of service beyond fifty years of age including pro-rata adjustment for each completed month of continuous service since the last completed year of continuous service;
 - (iv) the minimum sum payable under these arrangements including any payment in lieu of notice (four weeks), is eight weeks' salary and the maximum including any payment in lieu of notice (four weeks), is eighty-four weeks' salary; and
 - (v) the sum payable to an employee under these arrangements shall not exceed the salary that would be payable were the employee to continue in employment until the maximum retiring age.
- 11.3 For the purpose of calculating any payment under Sub-clause 11.2:
- (i) where an employee has been acting in a higher position for a continuous period of at least twelve months immediately preceding the date on which the employee receives notice of retrenchment the salary level shall be the employee's salary in such higher position at that date;
 - (ii) where an employee during fifty percent or more of pay periods in the twelve months immediately preceding the date on which the employee receives notice of retrenchment, has been paid an allowance for shift work, the weekly average amount (calculated over a year) of shift allowance received during the twelve month period shall be counted as part of "weekly salary".

- (iii) other allowances, being allowances in the nature of salary, may be included with the approval of Australia Post.

12. ANNUAL LEAVE AND LONG SERVICE LEAVE

- 12.1 Recreation leave, leave bonus and long service leave entitlements will be paid in accordance with the prescribed entitlements.
- 12.2 While normally employees are not entitled to pro-rata long service leave until they have accrued ten years' continuous service, employees retrenched under this agreement shall on termination receive payment for an amount equivalent to pro-rata long service after one year's continuous service.

13. USE OF SICK LEAVE

- 13.1 The formal notice period provided under the arrangements will be extended by any periods of certificated sick leave taken during such period.

14. AGREEMENT NOT TO PREVENT OTHER ACTION

- 14.1 Nothing in this agreement may be used to circumvent existing Australia Post staff mobility agreements or to prevent the reduction in classification of an employee or the retirement of an employee as a result of action under discipline, invalidity, inefficiency or loss of essential qualification provisions.

15. SUPERANNUATION

- 15.1 All standard superannuation entitlements will apply to employees retrenched under these arrangements.

16. RIGHT OF RETURN TO APS

- 16.1 The acceptance of voluntary retrenchment automatically severs any entitlement to return to the Australian Public Service a former Commonwealth employee may have. Any surplus employee with such rights contemplating a return to the APS should seek information from the Public Service Commission either direct or through his/her staff clerk without delay, as time limits apply.

17. CONTINUOUS SERVICE

JOINT STATEMENT OF UNDERSTANDING

Australia Post and the ACTU agree that the future viability of the enterprise is critically dependent on it enjoying a reputation for reliability and efficiency in providing service to customers.

To enhance its reputation and protect its viability, Australia Post and the ACTU have commitment to identifying any areas where interpersonal relations and industrial relations and their effect on staff morale are unsatisfactory and implementing appropriate remedial action.

The parties agree that pre-emptive industrial action must be avoided in favour of a mechanism which allows local unresolved problems to be raised to higher levels for resolution.

Similarly, the parties agree that management should not implement contentious decisions without adequate consultation and where necessary relevant issues should be referred to higher levels for consultation.

Agreements negotiated at the national level are not to be re-negotiated at the State or local level.

To achieve these goals, the parties agree to the following principles and processes of participative management:

1. Effective local consultative arrangements are to be put in place and middle managers, supervisors and staff are to be assisted and encouraged to participate more in the problem-solving and decision-making at their own workplace.
2. Effective, 2-way communication with staff is to take place and first line/ middle managers are to be assisted and encouraged to play a greater role.
3. Adequate training is to be given to those management, supervisors and staff involved in participative groups to enable them to talk meaningfully to each other and to identify, analyse and resolve problems.
4. The reasons for changes affecting the workplace are to be clearly explained to and discussed with all staff prior to implementation.
5. Contentious decisions or implementation difficulties arising out of National agreements are to be referred to higher levels before implementation so that consultation can take place at those levels.

6. The roles and functions of various management levels and union representatives need to be clearly documented and respected.

The parties agree that priority needs to be given to putting the above principles into effect and national and State groups will be established to lead and monitor resultant action.
